THE AUTUMN WINDS.

The Autumn Winds, the Autumn Winds,
How mournfully they sing,
What sad and speechless musings
With every gust they bring.

Not like the early breezes
Of young spring's bursting bloom
Are the hollow winds that whisper now
An echo from the tomb.

Not like the perfum'd breezes
That fan'd bright summer's brow,
Are the boding tones of sadness
That sigh around us now.

No! then the winds were singing
Of life and beauty's bloom,
But now, each blast is telling
Of death, decay and gloom.

Yes, death; thy seal is printed
On nature's wide domain,
Thy crimson hues have tinted
The forest wide again.

On every leaf is blushing
Thy fatal hectic dye,
That last, sad, mocking beauty
That tells thy step is nigh.

Death, death, thou art the victor,
Thou art the victor here,
But yet thou canst not enter
Yon bright, eternal sphere.

October 1st, 1855.

THE SLAIN SOLDIERS.

They are gone, they are gone from the battle's loud roar
Beneath a strange sky they are lying.
They are gone from the carnage and fields of gore
And o'er them the cold winds are sighing.

They are gone from the fields where their life-blood was shed
These fallen men like chaff flow before them,
And they heed not now, though the booming gun
Of the strife is sounding o'er them.

They are far, far away from their own lov'd land,
In the soil of the enemy sleeping,
And no sorrowing, riven household band
O'er their lonely graves is weeping.

The tempest may howl, and the loud cannon roar,
They may howl; but their fury can't wake them;
They have fought their last fight, and the war-cry no more
To victory's shout can awake them.

Let them rest, let them rest from war's tumult fierce;
Let us weep with their rest and their cherish'd;
Those desolate houses, keen anguish will pierce it
When they think of the loved that have perished.

Weep, weep with the sorrowing ones who lament
Hopes broken and buried forever;
Oh! weep for the ties all shattered and rent
That death, and death only could sever.

24th Oct. 1855.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A WORD TO THE OVER-SENSITIVE.—A man strikes me with a sword and inflicts a wound. Suppose, instead of binding up the wound, I am showing it to every body; and after it has been bound up, I am taking off the bandage continually, and examining the depth of the wound, and making it fester, till my limb becomes greatly inflamed, and my general system is materially affected—is there a person who would not call me a fool? Now such a fool is he who, by dwelling upon little injuries and insults or provocations, causes them to agitate or inflame the mind. How much better were it to put a bandage over the wound, and never look at it again.

FACTS ABOUT BULLETS.—We are finding out all sorts of curious things about bullet wounds. It appears that a bullet, instead of going straight through a man in defiance of all obstacles, is diverted from its course by very slight circumstances.

A writer gives an instance in which a bullet entered on the side of the head, passed around beneath the scalp and fell out upon the opposite side, as though it had passed directly through the brain.

In another case a bullet struck the "Adam's apple" passed entirely round the neck, and lodged in the arifice by which it entered. A soldier being struck in the right arm, the ball was found beneath the skin of the opposite thigh; and in another who was wounded in the ankle when running, the bullet was found above the knee.

AN OLD CLERGYMAN.—Rev. Mr. Sawyer, who is about 100 years old, preached in Hebron, Ct. his native town, last Sunday. He left Hebron 87 years ago, and returned on this occasion to preach once more in the place of his nativity. He said: "It is now ninety-nine years since my good father and mother brought me to the meeting house upon this green to give me up to God in the ordinance of baptism. I have come after almost a hundred years to administer in the same church, and to inquire, is it well with you?"

DOCTOR HOOGLAND'S CELEBRATED

GERMAN BITTERS,

prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON,

German Medicine Store,

No. 120 Arch St., one door below Sixth Philada.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cure attests, in many cases after skillful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of Invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching power in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain, and pleasant.

Testimony from Maine.

CAPT. DANIEL ABBOTT, Brooklyn, Maine, July 16, 1843, says: "I was taken sick one year ago, last April, upon my passage from Havana to Charleston, S. C. At the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician, but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite. At last taking up a newspaper having your advertisement of 'Hooiland's German Bitters' in it, I sent for some immediately, this was about 10 o'clock, at 11 o'clock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o'clock. The effect was so rapid on me, that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man. I have not been without your medicine since, having been sailing between Baltimore, Charleston and the West India Islands ever since. I have now given up going to sea, and reside in this place, where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it."

Messrs. Jos. B. Hall & Co., Gentlemen—In answer to your inquiry, I will state that my daughter, aged about 16 years, had been complaining of a pain in her side, for six or seven years, and about the first January last, was taken down and confined to her bed. The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. From reading a number of cures performed by "Hooiland's German Bitters" I was induced to try it in her case, and sent to your store and purchased one bottle. She had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years. She feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body, and attributes her cure entirely to the German Bitters.

WILLIAM CLARK, Salmon Brook, Aroostook Co., Me. You should bear in mind that these Bitters are ENTIRELY VEGETABLE, thereby possessing advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases. For sale by respectable dealers and storekeepers generally.

The Infallible Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

ERYSIPELAS OF EIGHT YEARS' DURATION

CURED.
Copy of a Letter from Geo. Sinclair, Esq., of Paris, Canada, dated the 18th July, 1854.

To Professor Holloway.
Sir,—I feel a pleasure and a pride in bearing witness to the wonderful benefit I have derived by the use of your inestimable Ointment and Pills. For eight years I suffered unceasingly from attacks of erysipelas; large purple blotches came all over my body; in addition to the unpleasant feeling of itching and burning, which affected me both night and day, rendering life a misery to me, as well as to all around,—so severe was the attack. I used several reputed remedies without deriving the least cessation to my misery. At last, I determined to try your Ointment and Pills; after taking them for a few weeks, a visible improvement took place, and I feel considerably better;—in three months, by continuing with your medicines, I was completely cured, and now enjoy the best of health. The truth of this statement is well known here, hence there is no necessity for me to request secrecy.

I am, Sir, yours respectfully,
(Signed) GEO. SINCLAIR.

ULCERS IN THE LEG,—REMARKABLE CURE.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Edward Tomkinson, of Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, dated the 4th
May, 1854.

To Professor Holloway.
Sir,—My sister, Miss Jane Tomkinson, suffered for a great number of years from a bad leg; in which there were several deeply seated and old wounds, defying the skill of some of the most eminent of the medical faculty, a variety of remedies were also used unsuccessfully; and it seemed to me that there was not any thing capable of mitigating the agonies she endured. At length, she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and after using them for about five weeks, she was completely cured, after all other means had failed to afford her the slightest relief. I have no objection to these facts being published, if you feel disposed to make them known.

I remain, Sir, your most obedient servant.
(Signed) EDWD. TOMKINSON.

A BAD BREAST CURED WHEN AT DEATH'S DOOR!

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Henry Malden, of Three Rivers, Canada West, dated July 9th, 1854
To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—My wife suffered most severely after the birth of our last child with a bad breast. There were several holes in it one as large as a hand; and the devices and strappings I tried would not heal them, but it assumed an aspect more frightful than before, and horrible to behold. As a last resource I tried your Ointment and Pills, which she persevered with for seven weeks, at the expiration of that time her breast was almost well; by continuing with your remedies for two more weeks, she was entirely cured, and we offer you our united thanks for the cure effected.

(Signed) HENRY MALDEN.
