Helen B. Hetherington, took place at the home of the bride's father, Joseph W. Hetherington, Washademoak, on Oct., 12th. The solemn words which made the young couple one for life were said by the Rev. W. E. McIntyre, of Chipman. Only a few of the bride's intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. On the morning of the 13th, the happy couple accompanied by a faw friends left Kars, where they were met by upwards of eighty of their friends. After a bounteous repast had been served a good social time was enjoyed. The numbers of beautiful and valuable presents testified to the popularity of the happy couple.
