BY SUSAN COOLIDGE.

Grief is strong, but joy is stronger; Night is long, but day is longer; When life's riddle solves and clears, And the angels in our ears...

A Manila Convent's Dowry Fund.

(From the Manila Callian News, September 8.)

A wedding was celebrated in Manila last week, which did not create a vibration in the social atmosphere, but which revealed a picturesque custom...

The day after the wedding Archbishop Harty was astonished upon being asked to sign a large, impressive looking document...

When the convent was founded in 1594 a pious fund was donated, the interest of which was devoted to educating and maintaining a number of girls...

Since the foundation of the institution more than five hundred thousand dollars have been bestowed in dowries. It is all the successful suitors who have become beneficiaries of this dowry fund...

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofula—ugly as ever since time immemorial. It causes blemishes in the neck, disfigures the skin...

Howd's Sarsaparilla

It will rid you of it, radically and permanently, as it has rid thousands. form a stronger contrast. The tact, solicitude and practical ability of the Sisters of Charity in character-building need no encomiums...

"WHO WILL BE NEXT?" When love that laughs at the most impregnable fortresses penetrates the barriers of the convent...

The convent is not to them a gloomy place, where "the dim religious light" casts a shadow upon all. On the contrary, they imbibe cheerfulness there, which they carry into their future worldly habitations...

Physicians tell us that all the blood in a healthy human body passes through the heart once in every two minutes. If this action becomes irregular the whole body suffers.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is such a great aid because it passes so quickly into the blood. It is partly digested before it enters the stomach; a double advantage in this. Less work for the stomach; quicker and more direct benefits.

Abbotsford and its Owners.

The Hon. Joseph and Mrs. Maxwell-Scott, of Abbotsford, have again left their historic home on the Tweed, to Mr. W. Harrison Cripps...

Forming Character.

As a sequel to "Talks with Parents" we give below an instruction once addressed to her pupils by the wise Mother Superior of a Convent School. Few mothers may talk as she did; but all mothers, when guiding their children, may well keep in mind the truths which she so well expresses:

What we should care to form and preserve in ourselves is the Catholic character—a character as distinct as it is beautiful, and which is entirely built upon the foundation of the Catholic faith. By this Catholic character, remember, I do not in the least mean the character of a recluse or a devotee.

"This Christian character consists in: (1) fidelity to duty—giving to all their due; (2) God, to others, and to ourselves; (3) freedom from human respect—readiness to confess the truth, to practice religion openly; (4) love of the poor, self-denying almsdeed; and (4) good habits.

Mrs Maxwell-Scott, although her descent from the famous romance writer is entirely in the female line, is well known to have inherited much of his literary ability; and she combines an enthusiastic interest in the history—especially its romantic side—of her country with a zeal in the cause of Catholicism, which gives to all that she writes no little charm and value.

"Good habits require an effort to form; bad habits are very easily formed, because they go with the stream. What we call bad habits is generally indulgence of a me part of our unrestrained nature; idle habits for instance, spring from the sloth of our nature, which hates trouble and cannot bring itself to face a difficulty with a strong will.

In Rome the other day was celebrated the golden jubilee of a distinguished Redemptorist, Father Berthe, consultant general to the rector major of his order. Tall, he is still unstooped, though worn with infirmity, with hair as white as snow. For more than forty years he has labored as missionary with great success. Amid his labors in preaching missions, giving retreats to every class, especially to the clergy and ecclesiastical students, he found time to write books, which did fair to preach long after he shall have gone to his reward.

Many Women Suffer Untold Agony From Kidney Trouble.

Very often they think it is from so-called "female disease." There is less female trouble than they think. Women suffer from backache, sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, and a dragging-down feeling in the loins. So do men, and they do not have "female trouble."

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

At stated intervals. Miss Nellie Clark, Lambeth, Ont., tells of her cure in the following words: "I suffered for about two years with kidney trouble. I ached all over, especially in the small of my back; not being able to sleep well, no appetite, menstruation irregular, nervous irritability, and brick-dust deposit in urine, were some of my symptoms. I took Doan's Kidney Pills. The pain in my back gradually left me, my appetite returned, I sleep well, and am effectually cured. I can highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney trouble."
