Banker's Fine Fare.

The banker Upton, Capt. W. Martin, reached New Placentia, Wednesday, from Labrador, with 600 qts. of fish, and might have done better could he have remained on the coast. His son becoming ill he had to leave for home, and came up from Battle Harbor in little less than a week. She had fine weather up. The vessel has 1,800 qts. to her credit, will get another baling and going to Labrador will complete the voyage there. The captain says that fish is very plentiful in deep water off the coast, and met Capt. John Lewis below Domino, and he was getting from 60 to 80 qts. daily; while the two Hollets, of Burin, were taking from 70 to 100 qts. each day. All expect to full up shortly.

Flower Service.

The annual flower service will be held in the Church of England Cemetery to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. H. Uphill will conduct the service and the address will be given by Mr. R. G. McDonald. The singing will be accompanied by the C.E.B. band under the leadership of Capt. Snow. After the service a collection in aid of the funds for the upkeep of the cemetery will be taken up. No doubt a large number of our C. of E. people will be present at this impressive ceremony.

"A Toothsome Flavour."

True for you, there's a treat in the crisp, nutty, delicate sweet taste of Grape-Nuts served with cream or milk.

(Don't spoil the food by trying to cook it. That work is done and perfectly done at the factories.)

The cream should soften it a bit, but not enough to excuse the teeth from at least a few good earnest "chews" for old Dame Nature sends rich blessings to the long chewer. Of course the one with weak teeth can soften the food with milk down to a mush if necessary, but the good old Dame doesn't smile quite so cheerfully on them.

You know, children and adults must use the teeth and grind freely to make them grow strong and to preserve them. Then the act of chewing brings down the much needed saliva from the gums, and that helps them amazingly in the digestion of foods of various kinds.

This saliva is not so much required with Grape-Nuts, for this food is partially pre-digested, that is, the starch turned into a form of sugar in the process of making and that helps give it the fascinating flavour.

Grape-Nuts people are healthy and enjoy good things. "There's a reason."

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Placentia Notes.

On Thursday night an enjoyable time was spent at Mr. A. J. Ryan's, Jersey Side. An invited dance was held in honor of their son's birthday. Quite a number of young people were present and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Supper was partaken of during the night, and dancing kept up until 1 a.m. It closed with the entire gathering singing: "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and "God Save The King."

Dr. Lehr is at present here attending to the dental business of this town. He will remain until the 13th.

Dr. Lynch arrived here from the Bay on Thursday, and will in future reside here.

On Wednesday the Royal Amusement Club, of St. John's, will come here by special train. During their stay the Star A. A. intend playing a football and cricket match between them, which will prove interesting. At night a dance will be held in the Star Hall, after which they will depart for the city.

About a week ago the results of the Examinations, held in June, arrived from England, and we have our share of honours. The Convent School sent up 19 pupils and 16 were successful, gaining some 12 distinctions. The good work done in past years by this centre is again being done here, for the Convent has always produced excellent teachers. But I cannot forget the Boys' School in charge of Mr. Muldowney, who is a graduate of Old Bonaventure's (the seat of learning). He had this year 32 Preliminary and 3 Primary sitting for the Exams; and 3 Preliminary and 4 Primary were successful; one in First Div. in Preliminary. The other boy took sick in the examination room as the Grammar papers were being distributed, and I think but for this he would have passed. All that is wanted is a little encouragement for our boys and girls and then the city colleges will have all they can do to take the pupils of "Ye Ancient Capital."

CASTLE HILL, Placentia, Sept. 9th, 1910.
McMurdo's Store News.
Saturday, Sept. 10, 1910.
The person who takes cold easily and finds it difficult to shake off the effects of that cold, should look after himself. This is a clear sign that the constitution is not up to the mark and that something is needed to tone up the system. This is where Marro comes in. This excellent tonic—a real tonic, not a mere stimulant—is composed of Cod Liver Oil, without the grease, and Iron; and will restore the appetite, increase the staying powers, and do away with that weary "all gone" feeling. If you do not feel "fit" secure a bottle of Marro and take it regularly. The results will please you. Price $1 a bottle.

Fishermen in Peril.

Several of the fishermen of the Battery who were out in their boats on the Logy Bay grounds and did well yesterday, had a hard time in getting back. Willis Reid's trap skiff with himself and Messrs. Reid, Kane and Wheeler on board, came very near going to bottom. A gale of wind blew and a big sea ran, and in returning home when off the Skerries all the seams of the boat opened and water began to pour in rapidly. The men bailed continuously with their hats and a couple of buckets, and when they reached their stage the boat was more than half filled with water. Most of the other boats were miles away and had the boat foundered all would have been drowned. Another small boat with the same quantity of fish on board was almost swamped in the sea and the men on board, Mr. Wilcox and another, had to throw over the ballast to lighten her, but for which she would have been swamped.

Lynx on the Southside.

Mr. Robert Stagg has had several cats killed on the South Side during the summer season, and yesterday being that dogs which roam the hills did the damage, sallied forth to shoot them. The first animal he saw was a large lynx and he killed it. Quite a lot of poultry has been destroyed there also and he thinks now that these are the animals to be blamed.
