Sir Edward Grey.

The news that Sir Edward Grey, the Secretary for Foreign Affairs, has been obliged to discontinue his labors even for a short time to rest his eyesight, will cause regret throughout the Empire. Even though his place is temporarily taken by Lord Crewe, who has had experience in the For-eign Office, when he was Secretary to harl Granville, assisted by Lord Lansdowne, who was Foreign Sec-retary from 1900 to 1905 in the Balfour administration, the absence Sir Edward Grey from the Foreign Office will be felt. Sir Edward Grey occupies a unique position in the confidence of the nation as Foreign Secretary, and the nation trusts him there as much as they trust Mr. Asquith as Prime Minister and Lord Kitchener as Secretary for War. He is the embodiment of the plain com-mon sense of the nation and its para-as it did thousands of lives, has fallmount duty, and is actuated by a high sense of personal honour. The outstanding success of the struggle in which Europe is engaged is the dip-lomacy by which Sir Edward Grey has knit together Britain, France and Russia and brought Italy to our side in this gigantic struggle. His is the success which has brought these nations to the determination to fight to a finish until the Teutonic conspiracy against the freedom and liberties of lumanity has been utterly destroyed. The intention of Germany to defeat France and Russia in detail, while keeping Britain out of the war until she could tackle her alone with all the prestige of success on the con-tinent was frustrated by Sir Edward Grey, who has taught the Kaiser and his minions that Britain will fight for right, even though it is but a scrap of paper. Last but not least of his successes in diplomacy has been his efforts to make clear to the United States that Britain is fighting for the success of free institutions in world, and for a high standard of international law and humanity, and his example will be a source of in-spiration to President Wilson in determining the attitude of the United States, as the American people are now confronted with a situation like in many respects to which their English kin across the water had to can exchanges on the Lusitania trag-

Boy Scouts' Patriotic

Mr. Cameron of the British Theatre has kindly consented to aid the Boy Scouts by singing at their Concert in the Grenfell Hall on to-morrow, Wednesday evening, June 2nd. This means a good deal because so many would appreciate hearing Mr. Cameron in patriotic and comic songs and for this good cause—The Boy Scouts. Songs will also be rendered by Rev. J. P. Adams, Mrs. Job, Miss Nellie Job, and Miss E. Jones; patriotic recitations by Miss Madge Quick, Miss Daisy Skinner, Mr. B. Colton, Mr. F. Gush-us, leading elocutionists; pianoforte solos by Miss Dorothy White and Mr. Gordon Christian; a sketch from life "The Volunteer," and a display of drill address will be delivered by the Lord of Newfoundland, and there will be a short speech at the close in expression of appreciation by the Scout Master, Mr. Butler. The Boy Scouts in the city should attend in their hundreds to help on this good

Admission, 20c., will be by ticket, entertainment, or from members of the Troop. The concert will be a grand patriotic event, and it is hoped that everybody who can will patron-

"The Man of a Hundred Wounds

"The Man of a Hundred Wounds" is the way English papers are describing a young Newfoundlander, Lieut. Commander Howley, R.N., a nephew of the late Archbishop Howley, of the Ancient Colony. He received his wounds aboard the Irresistible in the Dardanelles, where he showed the stuff that heroes are made of, when his ship was in action, distingishing himself and doing credit nob-ly to the fair name of Newfoundland.

McMurdo's Store News

TUESDAY, June 1st, 1915. Syrup of Figs is an ideal laxative for both adults and children. It does its work without any griping, and it is not constipating afterwards. It's pleasant taste makes it specially suitable for Children and infants, and it is sufficiently powerful for adults.

Coco Cola Gum appears to be catching on. We bespeak for it considerble popularity. Price 5c, a pkg. Ice Cream is always delicious, but the kind we have this season is particularly good. You are sure to be pleased if you try it. Price 10c., Sundaes, etc., 15c.

GERMAN EFFORT EXPENDED-RUSSIANS ON OFFENSIVE.

LONDON, To-day. The great battle of the San in which the Russians fell back after retreating over half Galicia, still rages, but the Russians assert they have assumed the offensive. This state-ment is taken in London to mean another mighty German effort has ex-pended itself. Though the fate of Przemysl is still uncertain, it is con-tended in Allied circles that the Austro-Germans have failed in their purpose to crush the Russians in Galicia, en short, just as it did in the repeated thrusts at Warsaw and Calais. The official statement issued to-night by the Austrian War Office, makes no claim to any noteworthy advances in the east, dismissing the Przemysl region with the brief declaration tha fighting continues and asserting that there have been no serious engage-ments elsewhere on the eastern front The Russians, on the other hand claim victories virtually along the entire front, especially beyond the Dneister where they say they have taken seven thousand prisoners. In the west neither side has done much of late, although the French continue gnawing around Arras. There has been hard fighting along the Yser. Italy has retaliated for the Austrian air and naval raids along her coast, by bombarding Pola, the Austrian naval base, from a dirigible, while Italian destroyers have made a dash on Monfalconer, doing considerable damage to Austrian shipping and getting away unscratched. German sub-marines have been extraordinarily active, the news last night adding one more neutral vessel to the growing list of victims. This was the Danish steamer Soborg, which was sunk forty miles northeast of the Tyne, All press, following the German-Ameriedy, display keenest interest. is much speculation as to the prable American action.

Entertainment. U.S. Cabinet Considers German Reply To-Day

STRONG STAND EXPECTED VIEW OF GERMANY'S FAILURE TO YIELD IN FACT OR PRINCI-PLE TO AMERICAN NOTE OF MAY 13th.

WASHINGTON, To-day. President Wilson intends so to shape the course of the United States lovernment in the international crisis, which has arisen, as to leave no loubt abroad of that country's purpose, not only to speak but if necessary to act for the cause of humanity. Two things were practically determined upon by the President yes-terday in the solemn atmosphere with which Memorial Day enveloped the National capital: First, Germany's avoidance of the larger questions of humanity and the spirit of Interna-tional Law by technical argument on nitherto undisputed points of the law of nations to exercise the right of visit and search by a war-craft when encountering merchantmen whether carrying contraband or not, must be met promptly with a note again setting forth briefly the facts as found by the investigation of officials here by the investigation of officials here as to the cargo and peaceful equip-ment of the Lusitania, reiterating the earnest intention of the United States to hold the German Government to strict responsibility for all violation of American rights on the high seas. bassador, has been granted an interview with President Wilson for Wednesday, noon, but unless he brings some proposal from his Government answering the demands of the United States differently from the Note just received from Dr. Von Jagow, German Foreign Minister, a circumstance which is doubted in well informed countries the President's course as quarters, the President's course as framed by his consultation with the Cabinet to-morrow, will not be materially affected; second, notwithstnding the critical situation with a statement which has been in pre-paration for several days and will be communicated to leaders of all factions in Mexico, serving notice unless they themselves bring to an early end the deplorable conditions which their warfare has wrought, some other means will be found by the United States in the interest of humanity to save millions of non-combatant Mexicans from starvation and further devastation of property. To-day the President will lay before the Cabinet both questions. The effect of the warning to Mexico, the President hopes will be a coalition within the next few weeks of the best elements in the Southern Republic to form a

United States and other countries can accord early recognition. The tense situation produced by the receipt of an unyielding reply from Germany to the request of the United States for reparation for 100 American lives lost in the sinking of the Lusiania and n the sinking of the Lusitania, and guarantees against destruction of American lives and property in the future, overshadowed all other Gov what the President will propose to his Cabinet to-day, was a matter of wide conjecture last night. In offi cial diplomatic quarters there was a noticeable confidence, however, that Germany having failed to yield in principle or fact to the American point of view, the President would suggest a course following logically the strong expressions of the Note of May 13. TERMAN SOCIALIST MANIFESTO DENOUNCES AUSTRIA-HUNGARY AND THE GERMAN WAR PARTY.

LONDON, To-day. The Morning Post's Berne correspondent says a long manifesto of the German Socialist Party is being cir-culated widely among the German working classes. According to a correspondent, it accuses Austria Hungary of having caused the war and complains of the ignorance in which the German and Austrian peo ple are kept. It denounces the Ger man War Party, Imperialism and se that in March peace was possible, but the greed of the Imperialists refused al,

AMERICANS CLEARING OUT.

LONDON, To-day. During the last few days, a positive exodus of Americans from Germany to Switzerland have been taking place, says the Morning Post's Berne correspondent. Many of the arrivals have been residents of Germany for years. They declare the nonvier years. They declare the popular feeling against Americans in some places make it intollerable, if not unsafe for them to remain.

INTERNMENT PROCEEDING SLOW-

LONDON, To-day. The internment of subjects of the enemy countries is proceeding very slow, owing to the difficulty in finding suitable accommodation. It has been suggested that the aliens be put under canvas, but according to the Times, this is impossible because the necessary tents are not procurable all of them having been commandeer ed for new armies.

ALPINE TROOPS PUT AUSTRIANS TO FLIGHT.

A battalion and a half Austrian machine guns attacked our Alpine troops in the defile on Mont Crocs on the Carnia frontier on May 30th. The Alpine troops repulsed five spirited attacks delivered one after the other, after which they took the offensive in violent rain and thick fog, putting their assailants to flight. Our uosses are light.
