WHO PAYS? SERIES AT THE NICK-

The week-end Nickel programme is as good as the other splendid shows this week and it will attract all 'the melo-drama "When the Tide Came in." This is a beautiful story true to life. The comedy is a keystone "A Lucky Leap" in which Fatty is seen. Tomorrow afternoon there is the usual big matinee for the children. Extra pictures will be shown. The theatre will open at 2 o'clock and the children should go early to have a good time.

Evening Telegram.

Sir W. E. Davidson, K.C.M.G., etc. Governor of the Colony of Nfld., Government House, St. John's, Newfoundland.

I have the honor to draw attention to the fact that letters and cablegrams non Government steamer Aberdeen from Newfoundland to members of the Regiment, and enquiries relating thereto, ar sometimes addressed to the War Office, which necessitates transmission to this office for distribution or necessary action; whilst in other instances such communications are sent to the Canadian Pay and Record Offices. These mis-directions naturally en tail delays of deliveries or action, and these aspects are therefore submitted to Your Excellency in case you may deem it desirable to circulate public notices to prevent similar disabilities.
