ELCAR

The largest, sturdiest and most beautiful car in its price-class THE ECONOMY CAR

Looks Good, Doesn't It? And the Picture Doesn't Begin to Do It Justice—But Most of All, ECONOMICAL

It is graceful in design and beautiful in finish—smart and stylish in every detail. Nothing lacking for beauty, comfort, performance or endurance. Drive all day and you won't be cramped or tired. In fuel economy this car is almost without an equal—18 to 22 miles to the gallon of gasoline are the rule rather than the exception. The steering is the easiest; the control the simplest. Easy riding whether fully or partially loaded; remarkable in this respect. Abundant power for hard pulls—fine driving qualities at all speeds—and all the speed you want. Reliable quality is a certainty in the Elcar. Its builders learned to put in quality years ago when building cars selling up to and above $3000. It is a quality car at a popular price—good and large enough to fulfill any motor car requirement. Don't think of choosing until you have seen the Elcar.

Brief Mention of Elcar Points.

Reception at Goulds

A very enjoyable and successful entertainment was given at the home of Mrs. R. Howlett, Goulds, on Tuesday, 3rd inst. The reception was in honor of the return of her son Pierre, who for the past two years has been absent from home in the service of King and Country. An air of excitement prevailed the place on the day named—for Pierre "was popular with all and from early morning, flags fluttered a glad welcome to the young soldier who has given his best for "the Homeland." The first greetings being over preparations were immediately made for a reception and all pains were taken to make the entertainment an enjoyable one. Towards evening groups of people were to be seen wending their way to "the farm-house on the hill," where the reception was to take place. Here a rue Irish welcome was accorded each and every guest and ere long sweet strains of music floating on the night air proclaimed the opening of the dance. Soon numbers of couples have "filled the floor" and smiles of enjoyment wreathed every face. Gaily the dance goes on till "supper" is announced when the merry-makers sat down to a dainty repast. Words fall to do justice to the excellence of the tea-table—it was truly a "goodly feast"—and needless to say justice was fully done to the dainty "eats" provided. Supper being finished all repair to the dance room where with dance, jest and song the house sped swiftly by. Pale rays of light in the east announced the dawn of a new day ere the guests took their departure all agreeing that it was a "worthy reception" for a worthy soldier. To the parents of the young soldier we tender heartiest congratulations on the return of their loved one after his long term of suffering and imprisonment. That he may live long and happily in the land for which he has fought and suffered is the earnest wish of

"I will not drink from a German cup Or eat from a German plate; I will not deal with a German man All foul with German Hate."

ENGLAND'S FIGHTING MEN — Veterans of Mons, of the Somme, of Lemburg, are back in civilian clothes again—in British Workshops, Factories, in Lancaster Mills, with a great purpose—to Build Up Britain's Commerce.

"We are going into this thing wholeheartedly, sir! We've got our trained men back again, with fingers nimble and brains active from years of military training. We've finished with the War, but Germany is still an enemy. We must beat her in trade as we have done on the fighting field—AND WE'LL DO IT! We are going to make British trade-marks famous—FAMOUS FOR QUALITY."

That's what Ward Brothers, who make our Caps, say; that's what the Jaeger Woollen Company, part of whose output commanded for the Army kept our fighting men warm and healthy, tell us; that's what Christy's are striving for.

And there are our friends the Sammies—back from the hell at Chateau-Thierry—and they say the same.

Thus we have two great Nations striving to beat a pre-war standard—to oust Germany from the ports of the world—and from these markets have come our stock.

When you buy these trade-marks you help the cause: Ward Caps, Christy Hats, Jaeger Woollen Goods, Eagle Shirts, Cheever Neckwear, Cluett-Peabody Collars—all these are in it!

You have done your part in the War—NOW, CARRY ON!

The Tragic Romance Little Jane White

(Pearson's Weekly)

Two years ago there was no fairer from the London Town than Mistress daughter of Thomas Wainstead, merchant. The most surpassingly lovely was she. Her beauty of golden hair, eyes like violets, and dimpled rose-tinted cheeks, that, as the old ballads say, there was no pretence lad or woman east of Temple Bar who could not have shed his blood for her from her pretty lips. But her sweet smiles were reserved for the gallants who nodded eastward
