Tea and Entertainment. At "Home for Aged and Infirm," by Wesley Church Epworth League. It was our privilege yesterday afternoon to be present at a pleasant time arranged for the immates of "Our Home for the Aged and Infirm," for it is time to drop that unfair and unworthy name, "The Poor House," for it is not now the most dismal place on earth," and it is not now ill lighted, and ill ventilated and situated in the "region of smells." The Lady Superintendent, Mrs. Ross, had done great things, and her successor, Mrs. Miller, and her assistants have acc complished wonders in a short time To the new Superintendent, Mr. A. Miller, must be accorded great credit for the transformation of many discreditable surroundings, into more satisfactory conditions. The inmates were most cheerful, not a single complaint of food, or treatment, and had the kindest words for the Matron. Wardens, and Assistants. The tea served was a very beautiful one, cake and pies, ice cream, candy and oranges for all, with some tobacco extra for the men. One hundred and ten sat down to tea, and about twenty bedridden patients were served in their rooms. The concert opened at seven, the piano exercises by Miss O'Donnell, perhaps seventy-five years of age, amazed everybody. The skill of many years ago remains in her fingers and the old time medleys in her memory. The selections were both classical, difficult, and brilliant. After two encores she sang very sweetly the old popular air, "When You and I Were Young." Mr. Saunders also sang, "Up to Kelligrews," which was loudly anplauded. Mr. Geo. Cox gave a first rate solo, and Miss M. Abbott contributed two lovely songs. A vote of thanks to Mr. Miller, Supt., the Salvation Army Band, Mr. Moore and friends for valuable services of the Band, was spoken to by Mr. Mark Pike, President, seconded by Mr. Pelley. Mr. A. W. Miller replied with a fine address. The Chairman congratulated the young people of the League in giving up their afternoon
