

Hurrah for the Wentworths!

Splendid Victories for Rymal and Bain!!

The Reform victories on Monday have far exceeded the most sanguine hopes or anticipations of the Reformers in Ontario. The overwhelming defeat which has crushed out Sir Francis Hincks in South Brant, and the splendid victories which Messrs. Rymal and Bain have secured in the Wentworths, are sufficient to give the most enthusiastic Reformers. With regard to the Wentworths, the large majorities which both the Reform candidates gained have more than realized our expectations. Indeed from all the accounts we could gather up to Saturday night, we were led to believe that the contests in both Ridings would not only be very keen, but that the candidates on both sides were about equally matched, and not a few Reformers even expressed their fears that "honest Joe" and Mr. Bain would be hard put to it, and might be defeated. We were very loath to believe these reports, but they were so often repeated—even by our own friends—that we were reluctantly forced to give them credence. Fancy, then, our feelings of joy and satisfaction when the news flashed over the wires that Mr. Rymal had beaten Dr. Bethune by 208, and that Mr. Bain had beaten Mr. McKechnie by 111! Those who know Mr. Rymal best are well aware that it is not easy to rouse him. Naturally easy going and inclined to be indolent, we were afraid that he had over-estimated his strength, and was relying more on his popularity and past services than on any efforts he might make during the contest which has just closed. We are glad to say, however, that we were astray in our calculations. Mr. Rymal must have worked like a Trojan, and his many friends must have worked with equal spirit and determination, or they never could have gained such a splendid majority, the largest ever recorded for any candidate in the Riding. It serves to show also how popular Mr. Rymal is among his neighbours and fellow-farmers, and that they place a high value on his honesty and faithfulness as their representative. Not only does Mr. Rymal possess the wit and humour which have made him well-known throughout the Dominion, but he possesses much good sense, a keen insight which enables him to test public questions, and an excellent judgment by which his course as a public man is guided. All honour to South Wentworth for returning him to Parliament by such a large majority, and may he long continue to represent that good old Reform constituency.

Mr. Bain's victory in North Wentworth is equally significant. He had a very popular opponent in Mr. McKechnie, who as Mayor of Dundas commanded a large vote in that municipality. The Tories were quite confident they would elect Mr. McKechnie. Even that wandering political adventurer, Mr. Fahey, went down to Stony Battery, below Free- ton, in the vain hope that he could do the Tory candidate great service. But the electors went to questioning his own consistency, and wanted to have explanations why he now appeared the champion for a Tory, when only eighteen months before he went to the same place to assist in the election of a Reformer. So the poor fellow did Mr. McKechnie more harm than good. We are proud to say that North Wentworth elected Mr. Bain by such a large majority, and feel assured from what we have heard of him that he will be a very useful and reliable member of the Opposition.

THE GREATEST BLOW TO THE GOVERNMENT YET!

Defeat of Hincks in South Brant!

The Tories themselves are compelled to admit that the defeat of Sir Francis Hincks in South Brant is the greatest blow the Government have yet received. Holding a position only second to the Premier, Sir Francis risked much in trying his fortune in South Brant. He risked all and now he has lost all, and leaves the Riding under the weight of a most crushing defeat. The whole country knew that he was making desperate efforts to secure his election, that immense sums of money were being spent, and that a systematic course of bribery was being pursued. Even the Reformers in the Riding got frightened at such nefarious work. They were sure of a large majority, if that majority was not bought up. We are glad to say that although it was considerably reduced by such means it is still close to 800. Such a result may well satisfy the Reformers of South Brant and Ontario. To the former every credit is due for the noble efforts they made, and for the crowning victory they have achieved. Where will Sir Francis go to now? We doubt if any place in Ontario will afford a refuge to the defeated Finance Minister.

Glorious Victory in South Brant.

HINCKS COMPLETELY ROUTED.

Paterson's Majority 277.

The despatch to the Globe from Brantford says:

The contest in South Brant is ended and victory won. Most strenuous efforts were made by Sir Francis Hincks and his minions, and they appeared to be sure of success. On Sunday $100 a piece was offered for two pigs by the Hincks men, but at 11 o'clock this morning it was no longer doubtful that Reform principles would prevail. Brantford town, from which Hincks expected 300 majority, was kept down all day to about 60, ending at 5 o'clock at 77. Most encouraging news was received from the country polling places at intervals during the day. Burford, Hincks' old township, went dead against him from the first. Oakland, always a Reform stronghold, held its own place. Other townships gave good Reform majorities. It is estimated that not less than $20,000 changed hands for bribery, and $100,000 for bets. Many lost $800. About dark thirty or forty loaded waggons and carriages formed themselves into a procession and drove to the country to meet a procession from Burford. The Grand Trunk band accompanied them. The Burford people turned out, about two hundred in number, and all proceeded together to the town, the band playing "See the conquering hero comes," which had been practiced by order of Hincks in anticipation of his election. The town was all alive; the windows of the Committee Rooms, and many stores and private dwellings were splendidly illuminated. The procession drove through the principal streets, and then drove up on the Market Square. Mr. Plewes presided, and speeches were made by Mr. William Paterson, M. P. elect, Hon. E. B. Wood, and Mr. John McLean, of Galt. When Mr. Wood was speaking, some Tory rowdies endeavored to disturb him by groans and hisses, but the well-known voice was too much for their puny efforts. Fully 7,000 people were in the Market Square, including hundreds of ladies. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed, especially when returns from Wentworth were read. Mr. Hincks has not been visible to the naked eye since noon. Many ludicrous incidents occurred. Among others, Alfred Watts, Tory, who vacated for Hincks, and has worked hard for him, took a voter to his house on Sunday night, and slept with him. In the morning, when Mr. Watts went for a carriage, the voter slipped out and voted for Mr. Paterson. Bonfires were kindled in celebration of the victory. Cheers were given for the Queen, Mr. Paterson, Hon. Geo. Brown, and the Galt, Mr. Wood and Mr. Plewes. The Tories held a pow-wow in a bar-room from 10 to 12, and were addressed by Mr. W. D. Linsch.

ELECTION NEWS.

Hon. L. S. Huntington, Oppositionist was elected for Shefford by 402 of a majority. There is talk of J. H. Cameron trying his fortunes in Cardwell. Tom Ferguson is willing to retire in his favor, but Mr. Harris has not been switched off, and it is doubtful whether he will consent to retire. Another Quebec county has been wrested from the Government in the case of Mr. Prevost, Opposition, who was elected on Saturday, by acclamation, for Two Mountains. Mr. Daoust, who represented the county in the last Parliament, was a follower of Sir George Carleton.

The London Tories have a pretty kettle of fish on their hands. They nominated a Mr. Meredith as the Tory candidate for the Local Parliament, and now they are waking up to the terrible consciousness that Mr. Meredith promises to give the Ontario Government a "fair trial." It would be fearful if London Tories should have to vote for a supporter of Blake & Co.

The Hamilton Times says:—"One of the members elect for the city of Hamilton (Mr. Witton) is now, to the great disgust of his fellow-working-men of the city, on a tour to the East, stumping for Sir John A. Macdonald. Thinking men, who voted for him as a workingman, and because he was a workingman, begin to see now that the whole game played by the Ministerialists upon the workingmen was in reality a sham, a humbug, and a great farce. With reference to Mr. Witton we must say, in his defence, that he was not elected upon his own merits, but by the expenditure of large sums by the supporters of the Government. Now, under these circumstances, Mr. Witton cannot feel that he is an independent man. He was purchased at a great price, and the political party with which he has identified himself want him to render services to the party commensurate with the price they paid to secure his election."

We have it from the St Thomas Home Journal, that at a meeting held in Aldborough West by the Tory candidate for West Elgin, Mr. J. H. Munroe, Mr. McKellar, was treated in a most ruffianly manner by that worthy. After Mr. McKellar had finished speaking, and was listening to another speaker, Mr. Munroe edged up to him and said: "McKellar that map is false"—pointing to a copy of Sandford Fleming's map showing the several surveys for the Intercolonial Railways; "No," Mr. McKellar replied, "the map is correct." "You're a liar! You're a liar!" was Mr. Munroe's response, repeated with great vehemence and vindictiveness. Mr. McKellar, although a brave-hearted Highlander as lives, did not follow the example set by the Minister of Justice and slap the insulting ruffian's face. He only said, "Mr. Munroe, if that is your style of argument I don't want to have anything to say to you."
