Extra Inning Contests Featured Yesterday's Games, Three Going Extra Periods

Red Deer, July 25.—Red Deer met again tonight in the hands of the Calgary Bronchos in a free-hitting contest by a score of 11 to 5. Manning and Standridge, once team mates, but now opponents, were at the points for more effectively, and was also given more snappy support. Manning had two bad innings, the sixth and seventh, where the Calgary players, through a combination of hits and errors, crossed the plate nine times. Aside from these innings, he pitched in his old-time form.

Standridge allowed fewer hits and kept them better scattered. Calgary team looks stronger than at any other time this year.

Roche, while not a finished catcher, and apparently somewhat uncertain in his throwing, is full of pep, and is "ways in the game."

Vivian did well at second and proved a brilliant batter in his four times at bat, getting three hits, a single, a double and a triple, besides fielding faultlessly. Judging by the form displayed by Calgary on their first appearance in Red Deer in the second series, they will be the team to beat for the championship of the second series.

Two of Calgary's players showed seriously in the language used by them on the field. This in the first time that any players have forgotten themselves in any game played in Red Deer, and the fans are eager that it shall not recur again. One player, whose name need not be mentioned, in a bawling screech before the game began, used some language so offensive that had there been any ladies in the stand, action would have been brought against him. Baseball in Red Deer is patronized by the best people of the town, and rough remarks will not do the game any good. Your correspondent calls attention to this matter with respect to the fact that it may be the last time it will have to be mentioned. Following is the box score:
