no other, for there is nothing shady in the transactions, as even Unionist papers admit, arose from the fact that Godfrey Isaacs, the brother of the solicior-general, was managing-director of the Marconi company. Some time after the British government had entered into the contract with the company and when the details were known to the public, Mr. Isaacs induced his brother and also Mr. Lloyd George and some others to purchase stock in the brother and also Mr. Lloyd George and some others to purchase stock in the American company which was quite distinct. They had no reason to expect any great gain and the government had no connection with the American company. The whole of the changes, which have been discussed at a length which they do not deserve have fallen entirely to the ground and the public is now tired of the whole the public is now tired of the whole matter,

Parallel Cases Few. This is the only case within recent times that an editor has been found guilty of criminal libel and to get a parallel one has to go back to John Wilkes and the famous days of the half ago, and the notorious Juniu had he been unmasked, might have been sentenced to a similar fate. The verdict 'will carry this satis-faction, that it will probably end the carping spirit of malicious criticism which has been levelled aganst some of the prominent statesmen, principally Lloyd George, and the filthy lies which have been circulated by those

C. P. R., at the special meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon, in honor of the sixty-ninth anniversary of that organization.

Special addresses were given by Mr. Price and Secretary Robert Pearson, the former speaking on the association of today and Mr. Pearson on the movement of half a century ago.

Mr. Price spoke of the great cooperation of all denominations in the work of the association. He said that he could not tell to which denomination each member of the local board of directors belonged, though he had been.

Founded in England.

Mr. Price said that though the organization had been founded in England. Its greatest growth and progress had been on this continent, until today founding of the Y. M. C. A., told of the great difficulties that confronted the young men who, under the leadership of Sir George Williams, who was then a draper's clerk, attempted to extend the scope of their little organization.

he Tea of "Distinction"

Red Rose is a distinctive tea. It is largely composed of the fine teas of Northern India, which are generous in strength and richness: These, blended with the more flavory teas of Ceylon, produce the qualities for which Red Rose Tea is famed.

The 50c. quality of Red Rose is an extra fine teastronger and fuller-flavored than the 40c. quality which has the largest sale.

In 1 lb. and 1 lb. lead packages at 40c., 50c. and 60c.-also in tins of 3 lbs. and larger. RED ROSE TEA IS NEVER
