AN APPEAL TO MALAHIDE

To the Residents of the Township of Malahide:

A very urgent appeal has been made to the Council to aid the British Red Cross Society in the work they are so nobly doing in the care of the sick and wounded at the seat of war in Europe.

The Council decided to assist this cause and have granted the sum of $1,000.00 and instead of making a personal canvas ask all persons who desire to supplement this amount by private contributions to hand the same to J. M. Hale, Treasurer's office, Aylmer, who will acknowledge.

I trust the people of Malahide will receive this appeal and make a liberal responsive gift to augment the sum already subscribed.

Mr. John O. Boyd had a most fortunate escape from serious injury a few days ago. He was assisting in building a silo at the home of Mr. Ferguson, near Mapleton, when he was knocked from the scaffold and fell to the ground, a distance of 25 feet, alighting on his back. Beyond a severe shaking up he seems none the worse for his long-distance fall.

The number of sales being held throughout this district this fall is remarkable and it is interesting to note the exceptional good prices that cattle are bringing. At Cookson Bros.' sale on the 9th con. of Malahide, last Thursday, 16 cows and heifers averaged $84.69. Then at Thomas Harvey's sale at Jamestown on Monday, the 25th inst., his herd of 18 Grade Holstein cows and 2-yr.-old heifers brought an average of over $94.00, his best cows selling at $250 to $280 per pair, a remarkably high average. Mr. Harvey's sale amounted to over $5,000. Lindsay & Pound, the old reliable auctioneers wielded the hammer.

After a two months' illness, Mrs. Mary Eliza Mills, passed away at the Amasa Wood Hospital, St. Thomas, to which institution she was removed a few weeks ago. Deceased, who was in her 64th year, was a native of England, coming to Canada some six years ago. She is survived by two sons, Albert now, with the British army in India, and Lawrence, now in the fighting line in France, also two daughters, Mrs. John J. Fisher and Mrs. L. F. Smith, both of this place. Deceased was a most intelligent and highly respected lady, whose acquaintances could all be numbered as friends. The funeral took place from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Smith, Spruce St., on Friday afternoon, the interment being made in the Burdick cemetery, east of town.

Two deserters from the 33rd Battalion, London, last Thursday night broke into the gent's furnishing store of Alex. Rogers', Tillsonburg. They forced their entrance through a window at the rear, stealing two complete outfits of clothing, including new suits and overcoats. The soldiers left their regimental uniforms in the rear part of the store. They were supposed to have headed on foot for Delhi. Friday morning Mr. Rodgers made enquiries around town, finally learning that the two strangers had spent the night at the Royal Hotel. Mr. Rodgers hired a motor car and gave chase. The car overtook the soldiers near Delhi and the clothing merchant offered them a ride. Both deserters were intoxicated and accepted a ride, finally landing in the police cells at Tillsonburg.
