Officers of Local Oddfellows' Lodges Are Installed.

D. D. G. M. Was Assisted by Staff From Kerwood Lodge.

Over one hundred members of the Independent Order of Oddfellows attended the installation of the officers of the four city lodges, held last night in the Oddfellow' Hall, corner of Clarnce and Dundas streets. The turnout was one of the best seen in years, and showed an increasing interest on the part of the brethren. The installation ceremony was conducted by the district deputy grand master, Bro. A. Rogers, of Kerwood, who was assisted by a team composed entirely of members of Egremont Lodge, No. 207, of that village. They were L. H. Cook, who acted as grand marshal; J. M. Brunt, grand warden; Wm. Conkey, grand financial secre-tary; H. P. Westgate, grand recording ecretary; R. Brock, grand treasurer. The work of the district deputy and isfactory manner, and was subsequent ly the subject of much favorable comment. At the conclusion of the cere-Pills cured me.

> New York, Jan. 13. - The Herald says: Vigorous measures to check the epidemic of pneumonia, which holds the city in its grip, will be promptly taken by the health authorities, as a result of a meeting held last night by Dr. Thomas Darlington, the new commissioner, and the members of the advisory board of the department. In the last five weeks of 1903 there were 889 deaths in Manhattan alone, > from this cause, as against 586 for the corresponding period of the previous vear. Several methods of action were chosen as a beginning of the work. include the cleaning of all public building, including schoolhouses, a rigid enforcement of the law requiring the cleaning of sidewalks, from snow and slush, and insisting upon the proper heating and ventilation of street cars, surface and elevated. Another step, on which the physicians laid stress, was the enforcement of the prohibition against expectoration on the sidewalks or anywhere else, where infection may be caused. They are firm in the belief that pneumonia is an infectious disease, and that is one
