ANOTHER RISE IN PRICES

Renewed Activity in Stock Speculation

IN THE N.Y. MARKETS

Due to Settlement of Anglo-Russian Crisis

CHICAGO GRAINS ALL LOWER

Quotations on the Leading English, Canadian and American Stock, Grain and Produce Markets.

IN WALL STREET. (By Special C. P. R. Wire.) clearing up of the threatened international complications abroad the speculation in stocks here broke into renewed activity to-day and the rise in prices was renewed with as much animation and assurance as with the opening of the market. There was no indication that such a thing as an Anglo-Russian war had ever threatened, and the final prices to-day were in some conspicuous cases the highest of the week and of the year. The advance was even more comprehensive and evenly distributed than in the market of the earlier part of the week. Such weakness as was shown was due to specific causes, except and of Nova Scotia 272 for the sudden loss of its gain by Si. war had ever threatened, and the final shown was due to specific causes, except for the sudden loss of its gain by St. Paul in the final dealings, which made the close slightly irregular and gave the market an appearance of a contest between contending forces to determine the closing tone. The determined support of the forces behind the market generally prevailed, however, and the closing was very animated. Of the weak spots in the market that of Ontario & Western was due to the doubt thrown upon the earlier conviction that equal upon the earlier conviction that equal terms were to be offered to majority and minority holders in the purchase of control. The break in Metropolitan Street Railway and in metropolitan securities Railway and in metropointan securities was clearly a speculation on the possible future effects of the newly opened subway on the local transit traffic. Amalgamated Copper, Sugar, Union Pacific, Rock Island, Erie and Southern Railway were conspicuous features, but the strength was so general as to leave no room for detailed specification here. The strength was so general as to leave no room for detailed specification here. The bank statement showed the expected small change in cash, but the increase in deposits through the loan expansion depressed the surplus level. The tone of the foreign exchange market was slightly easier, but further exports of gold next week are generally expected. Total sales of bonds, par value, $5,275,000.

Saturday, Oct. 29.

The offerings of potatoes on the market this forenoon ran pretty close to 1,000 bushels, nearly fifty good-sized loads being on sale in different locations. The market did not show the buying power expected, however, principally because so-called experts in this line had circulated the report that the tubers would not keep. Whether there is any truth in the rumor is a question difficult of decision, but that it had the effect of hindering large purchases was too apparent to admit of doubt. At the outset holders asked 70c and 75c per bag, then came down and eventually 60c was accepted.
