

THE FARWELL DISCOVERY.

The report of the proceedings in the magistrate's court at Farwell, which we published last week, showed that the action of Mr. Sprout and the Provincial Commissioner has been sustained by the special commissioner sent from Ottawa by the minister of justice to report upon the recent trial of Mr. Sprout.

WAR AND HONORS OF WAR.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Europe has been in a state of excitement almost chaotic during the whole week, with armies mobilizing and the responsibility of the situation being placed on the shoulders of the British government.

REVISIONIZING THE MAP.

According to recent advice, a country has disappeared from the map of South America. This is the result of the most widely read books relating to navigation, whether historical, geographical or nautical.

HEALY'S ONSLAUGHT ON BANTRY.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Healy's recent visit to Bantry, in the County of Kerry, is being reported in the columns of the London Standard.

THE CRUISE OF THE MERMAID.

With a lambent-shaped instrument, the "Mermaid" was launched on her cruise, and the first of the Kythons was seen.

THE PINJIN, UNAVARISHED TRUTH.

As this chapter will necessarily be a short one, I shall devote part of it to that which has been deferred rather long, and to the principal characters.

A TEN CLIPPER HAZE WITH SHIPS AS A WAGER.

The burning of the clipper ship "Pinjin" at San Francisco afforded the Melbourne Argus an opportunity to give the following history of the ship, which illustrates the rivalry that has existed from an early date between American and English ships.

McMULLOUGH'S CONDITION.

The name "Tragedian Visited by His Wife" is a little known story which has been published in the columns of the London Standard.
