Cobden's time. That tells which way the world is moving.

We suggest this probability, that ere Canada has another opportunity of pronouncing on the trade question our neighbors will have settled it for us. For let us depend upon it that example will tell. If protection wins in the United States in 1888, then Sir Richard

The Northwestern Baseball League.
Sr. Paul., Minn., March 12.—The Northwestern Baseball League held a special meeting here to-day. The old constitution of the league was rescinded and that of the National League was adopted. The case of Legg. claimed by both St. Paul and Oshkosh, was referred to the Board of Directors. The new rules of the National League and American Association were discussed, but the prevailing opinion was that they are impracticable. Manager Hart of Milwaukee, who used them in San Francisco, predicted they would not be in use two weeks after the season opens. The schedule as adopted opens the season April 3 and closes Oct. 15, with 126 games.

CANADA'S IRON FIELDS.

An American Syndicate, it is Said, Owns and Controls Them.

New York, March 12.—An immense iron combination is being formed here which aims at nothing short of owning and controlling all the known valuable iron deposits of Canada, now being ascertained to be the richest iron country in the world. The Central Ontario Railway, which runs from Trenton, on Lake Ontario, through the centre of Ontario, and all the iron interest connected with it are to form part of the scheme. The road is to be extended 150 miles through the heart of the iron districts to a junction with the Canadian Pacific Railway at Lake Nipissing. The capital of the company is ten millions, more than two-thirds of which is already pledged. The syndicate it is said will own more than a hundred different properties at Shet His Daughter's Seducer.

POTOMAC, Ill., March 12.—A street duel between John Goodwin, a wealthy farmer, and Chas. Moorehead, a young bank cashier, occurred here to-day. Goodwin had charged that his 15-year-old daughter was seduced by Moorehead. The two men met near the centre of the town about noon. They whipped out revolvers simultaneously and commenced firing at once. The chambers in each one pistol had been emptied, when the alleged seducer fell, mortally wounded. Goodwin escaped without a scratch, and unmolested made his escape.

Death of a Pressinent K. of L.

PHILADKIPHIA, March 12.—William Cook, one of the seven founders of the Knights of Labor, died a few days age and was buried yesterday. The funeral took place from his late residence, Washington-avenue, and was attended by thousands of his fellow Knights. The Rev. J. T. Beckley, of the Beth Edea Baptist Church, conducted the services. Malta Lodge, No. 53, Knights of Pythias, and Robert Morris Lodge, No. 29, Independent order of Oddfellows were well represented in the procession, while the United Assembly of Garment-Cutters, Knights of Labor, attended in a body with two hundred members.
