DO YOU TAKE ME FOR A SCOUNDREL? Dr. Wild Eulogizes the Memory of the Late Mr. Mackenzle.

Dr. Wild delivered a beautiful comm apon the life and works of the late Hon. Alexander Mackenzie from the Bond-street pulpit last night. He took for his text Prorerbs xxii., 1: "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver or gold."

Mr. Mackenzie, asserted the Doctor, in his life, political and private, seemed to have been actuated by the wise "saw" of Solomon, been actuated by the wise "saw" of Solomon, for he died-poor, but without the slightest stain upon his moral escutcheon. His honesty and directness of purpose were what might eren be called aggressive, since he felt called upon to speak plainly, sometimes cutingly, concerning "the ways that are dark" of cer-tain compatriots. Of this latter trait the Doctor gave an in-stance: At one period of Mr. Mackenzie's political life a number of gentlemen inter-viewed the deceased statesman in order by his endorsement to effect some nefarious scheme for their own private gain. Their confusion may be imagined when the sturdy Scot, turning upon them in righteous indignation, exclaimed: "Gentle-men, I demand to know by what right you consider me a scoundrel; for evidently by your asking me to endorse this scheme such is your opinion."

your asking me to endow this current is your opinion." The reversud gentleman then proceeded to illustrate the perseverance and energy which had raised the hardy Scotchman from a stonemason's apprentice to the premiership of a nation. He concluded by exhorting his hearers to follow in his footsteps, to be imbued by the same manly-sentiments.

CHILDREN'S SUNDAY. Interesting Services at Broadway Taber nacle Yesterday.

The special services in connection with the universary of Broadway Tabernacle Sunday school yesterday were very interesting. Rev. J. E. Smith of the Metropolitan Church preached at the morning service. At the Prospects steady. preached at the morning service. At the afternoon service the children were address-ed by Rev. W. J. Maxwell, who succeeded in imparting instruction to the scholars in an entertaining and amusing manner. Hon, S. H. Blake preached in the evening. At all the services the children of the school ren-dered special hymns in a manner which showed the careful way in which they had been trained. Miss Milliken, the new organist of the church, whose admirable playing is exciting comment, played the organ accompaniments, and was assisted by the excellent orchestra of the Tabernack.

Practical Art Instruction. Con Friday night at the close of the winter session the students of the Toronto Art Students' League were given a practical lesson in oil paint-ing by one of the most eminent of Canadian artists. The happy manner in which Mr. G. A. artists. The happy manner in which Mr. G. A. Reid combined his lucid explanation of the several theories of painting—still life and por-traiture—with the application of his theory on the canvas was an aid to learning as felicious as novel, and was highly appreciated by the ad-vanced class who composed his audience. The league scatters for the summer sketching and practice and hopes to show Toronto the same vitality in the work next fall.

Mr. John McCarthy, Toronto, writes: "I can unhesitatingly say that Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery is the best medicine in the voria. It curved me of Heartburn that troubled me for over thirty years. During that time I tried a great many different medicines, but this wonderful medicine was the only one that took hold and rooted out the disease." ALEXANDER & FERGUSSON,
