tion of the new officers. Mr. Cottam Active preparations are being made by the Catholic Young Ladies' Literary Association. He was certain that under the are of the incoming president, Mr. Thomas Callaghan, the club would continue to advance with the same rapid strides which had tharacterized it in past years. His remarks were frequently interrupted by applause, and at the conclusion a hearty vote of thanks was unanimously tendered the retiring officers. The new administration delivered addresses, after which the regular order of business was taken...up. The report of the Executive Committee was read by Mr. James H. Gilmour, and showed a very satisfactory state of affairs. Over $1000 had been expended during the year, the most of which had been laid out on the new club house in William-street, leaving after all debts had been paid a belance of over $150 in the treasury. The report was adopted, and in accordance with the recommendation contained therein the sum of $25 was voted to furnish a cot in St. Michael's Hospital. It is altogether likely that a minstrel show will be put on the beards about Christmas.

Theatres.

Yesterday was a big one for the theatre.
In the afternoon Rhea produced "Much Ado About Nothing" and "Princess Andrea" at night. Both plays went smoothly and were loudly applauded in the great scenes. Rhea has in her company one young actor who shows great promise. Mr. Howard gave a very effective portrayal of this difficult and unsympathetic role.

"A Temperance Town" evidently possesses all the elements of a popular play. Hoyt has rather broken away from his flarce-comedy record, and "A Temperance Town" contains evidences of his ability to handle more serious work. Miss Elsie Lombard does especially pretty work in the scene with her dead brother's chair. The performances were thronged yesterday.

The managers of Jacobs & Sparrow's and the Musee were also in a humor to give thanks last night. Altogether the name, Thanksgiving Day, had a grateful significance for the theatrical managers.

The Chrysanthemum Show.

The Chrysanthemum Show also received a large share of the holiday "patronage yesday. The show closed with its finances in a very prosperous state, and the officers spoke hopefully of making a more delightful exhibition than ever next year. The growers were so pleasantly disposed towards the close of the evening that flowers were bestowed on many of the most interesting of the onlookers.

Year by year the Thanksgiving concert in this church has been growing in popularity, and it is safe to say the one given last night was the best of the series. That the first talent to be had in the city contributed to the success of the evening's entertainment, it is only necessary to mention the names of Mrs. Caldwell, Mr. Harold Jarvis; the popular organist and conductor of the church of the church, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Blight, and Miss Agnes Knox. The efficient choir of the church, which was down on the program reflected much credit on Conductor H. M. Blight.

The concert given in Bond-street church last night was well attended in spite of the numerous counter attractions elsewhere. Mr. W. S. Jones' organ solo and Miss Edith Mathews' song, "Daddy," were both recalled, as were also all the numbers contributed by Mr. Owen A. Smily, the elocutionist, who won warm and well-deserved applause.

GOSSIP FROM CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Wheat has been lower to-day. The buying of yesterday had about ruu in all the local shorts, and when longs tried to realize early in the day prices broke rapidly and close at almost the bottom. The cables' have been of a more encouraging nature and charters fair, but it does not bring in as much outside buying as it ought to do. The speculators are afraid of our big stocks. Bradstreets' showed a larger increase than was expected. Receipts here are fair, but indications are for both here and northwest to be lighter. Corn strong. The Government report this afternoon is expected to be buillsh. Cincinnati Price Current on buil side, and the trade looks for former to favor that side; New York been buyer. Receipts light.

Receipts hogs were over the estimate with Receipts hogs were over the estimate with prices for same lower; on this showing provisions opened lower, with some selling by local longs and grain men, besides a good deal of stuff which came out on stop orders. The Cudahy-Wright party increased their holdings. All these sort of breaks are good opportunities to buy on and should be taken advantage of.
