A large crowd saw the Ontarios defeat the Dauntless on Smith's grounds Saturday for the intermediate championship. This is their second successful year. The Ontarios have won the championship, only losing five games in two seasons. They defeated the Wellingtons, champions of the Western League, for the intermediate championship of Toronto, and defeated them last Labor Day, and are confident or winning this year. They have the smallest catcher in the league and the lightest team.

ALL READY FOR THE RACE

The Toronto lacrosse team as at present constituted may contain the material for a winning team, but they were outclassed and outplayed at every point in their game with the Shamrocks at Rosedale Saturday afternoon. Eight hundred people saw the game, and sent up a mighty cheer when the Toronto's showed about their only burst of brilliant play and won the fifth game in one minute. The match was comparatively free from mist two goals were easily scored by the visitors. Then Newmarket wakened up, and in short order Ewing and Cain made the score even. After some sharp playing Hollingshead passed the rubber through for the Talagoos. The next goal fell to the Elims, the ball glancing off the stick of the Heims, the ball glancing off the stick of the Talagoo's point, and score was even. Gibbney added another for the Talagoos. No further games were scored, leaving Newmarket ahead by 4 to 3. To the surprise of everyone, Newmarket's defence went to pleces in the early part of the game. Secretary McConaghy refereed satisfactorily. For the visitors, Wilkinson and Wardrobe on home and Angus in goal deserve special mention. Newmarket's home and field never put up such a grand game. Shupe in centre played magnificently, and Montgomery, Ewing and Caine delighted everybody. Stonewall in goal made some fine stops and throws. The Elims are confident of pulling down the majority and ultimately winning when the Talagoos come to Toronto.

It was chilly at Hanlan's Point last night, but quite a number of people turned out to hear the sacred music rendered by Mr. Bayley's band, under the auspices of the Toronto Ferry Company. This was an extra concert, the season's regular program having been completed a week ago. Some of those present thought that in view of the Police Court cast last week the authorities would not allow the concert to take place. There was, however, no ground for their surmise, and an excellent program was rendered and much enjoyed by the audience. A couple of policemen were in close proximity to the musicians, no doubt to see that none but sacred music was played. The band, however, did not offend in that respect and the concert passed off, and the audience conducted themselves in a thoroughly quiet and circumspect manner. Sacred Concert at the Island.
