Extract of a Letter from the Earl of Aldborough, dated 24th January, 1846, to Professor Holloway.

To Professor Holloway.

Various circumstances have presented the possibility of my thinking you were this time for your politeness in sending me your Pills as you did. I now take this opportunity of sending you an order for the amount, and at the same time to add that your Pills have effected a cure of a disorder in my Liver and Stomach, which all the most eminent of the Faculty at home, and all over the Continent, had not been able to effect; nay I not even the waters of Carlsbad and Marienbad I wish to have another box and a lot of the Ointment, in case any of my Family should ever require either.

ALDBOROUGH
A WONDERFUL CURE OF DROPSY OF FIVE YEARS' STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thomas Taylor to the Earl of Aldborough, 17th April 1845.

To Professor Holloway.

I think it my duty to inform you that Mrs. Clough, wife of Mr. John Clough, a respectable farmer of Achna, within four miles of this place, had been suffering from Dropsy for five years, and the best medical advice without receiving any relief. Hearing of your Pills and Ointment, she used them with such surprising benefit that in fact she has now given them up, being as well and quite able to attend to her household duties as formerly, which she never expected to do again. I do not forget to state that she was given by the Family as a cure for a long time, and to get up in the morning it was not possible to discover a feature in her face, but a such a fearful one. This cure is entirely to the use of your medicines.

THOMAS TAYLOR, OR A CURE OF INDURATED GONORRHOEA.

Copy of a Letter from G. R. Williams, Esq., Author of the "Book of the Golden Rule," to Professor Holloway.

To Professor Holloway.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Pills, a few boxes of which I purchased at Mr. Moore's, Druggist, of Newcastle, having heard of the constant indication and constipation of the bowels, which is a common complaint of the aged, and I should strongly recommend them to all who are afflicted with this complaint, to use your valuable Pills. You will be permitted to publish this notice, if you wish to do so.
