

CHAPTER XXIII.

	PAGE
Old Aurora—The Long-Knives—The Silver Age—The Golden Era—A Lament for old Times—The State of Nature—Arrival of the French—The Yaganash—The Yankees—Hard Times—Fire-water—Dying out of the Game—The Chief Shinguakongse—His Birth and Parentage—His great Dream—The rising Sun—Visits his Father—Becomes a great Brave—Capture of Fort Mackinaw—Is appointed to a Chèferie—Love of the English—Is a great Mystery Man—Piece of Superstition—Thirty Thousand Dollars for Medicine—Turns Christian—His Death	367

CHAPTER XXIV.

An Indian Scribe—Menaboju and the Deluge—The Terrors of War—Creation of Kinmi-kannik—Menaboju becomes young again—Love Songs and Incantations—A Spring Song—When the Swallows homeward fly!—The Dream of the Morning Star—A Hunter's Dream—The French Traiteur—Europeans and their Hats—The War Eagle—A great Fast—The Dream of a Brave—The Temple Wigwam—The four Victims	385
--	-----

CHAPTER XXV.

Migrations of the Bears—The Passe à l'Ours—The Year 1811—The Dogs of Maguësh—The Bear Knife—Cunning Tricks—The Ren-versi—Hollow Trees—Bears' Tongues—A novel Art—Birch-bark Biting—The Sun-Dial—The White Colour—Menaboju—Discovery of Maple Sugar—Native Doctors—Indian Cheerfulness—No Care for the Morrow—A really lazy Chief—The Squatters—The Montagnais—Perfect Savages—Land Tenure among Indians—Incantations and Spells—Love of Home—Sault Ste. Marie—The North Star Steamer—Farewell to Lake Superior	405
--	-----