BIGGAR'S CHALLENGE.

So far no intimation of an acceptance of the challenge so boldly given to the athletes of the Dominion by Mr. Biggar has been re-served: It was expected that such a sweep ing deft would have had any number of responses, but so far "mum" is the word among cur pedestrians, and from prosent appearances. Mr. B. is to be allowed to re-tire from the pedestrian arena without a contest. We still retain his deposit money, and feel satisfied to does not desire to retire on his honors without a final test of his abilities with any one in the country.

A CHALLENGE TO MR. MOORE.

We have received the following challenge from Mr. E. W. Johnston, the well-known athlete, to a Mr. Moore, whoever he may be. It was unaccompanied by a forfest or deposit on the part of the challenger, and, although contrary to our usual rules, w it a place in our columns, it would have looked in better faith it it had been accompanied with something substantial as an evidence of carnestness.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10, 1877.

To the Editor of the Sporting Times :-

Please insert that if Mr. Moore wishes to jump me let him put in your hands from $25 to $500, and I will cover the amount and that will settle
