CAPTAIN GEORGE B. WILTBAK, 919 Spruce street, Philadelphia, Pa., if now on land, will, if you write and enclose a stamp for reply, tell you that "three years ago, when in Central America, he was prostrated with kidney and liver trouble of a very serious nature. He was delirious, skin very dark, liver enlarged one-third, stomach too sensitive for the simplest food." Seven bottles of Warner's safe cure completely cured him, and saved his life.

MINCE MEAT.—Three pounds of lean beef, boil, and when cold, chop fine; three pounds of suet, chopped and shredded; five pounds of good brown sugar; six pounds of apples, chopped fine; three pounds of seeded raisins; two pounds of currants; one pound of citron, cut in small pieces; the grated rind of a lemon; the peel of one large orange (remove all the white part from the peel, cut it very small, pour boiling water on it, let it stand an hour, drain it, and then add to the other ingredients); two grated nutmegs; one teaspoonful of ground cloves; one tablespoonful of ground cinnamon; enough boiled cider to wet it thoroughly.

A HEAVY LOAD.—"When I ate, my food was like a lump of lead in my stomach. I took Burdock Blood Bitters. The more I took, the more it helped me, I am like a new man now," says Ezra Babcock, Cloyne P. O., Township Barrie, Ont.

FRUIT CAKE.—One pound of white sugar, one of flour, two of raisins, seeded and chopped fine, two of currants, washed and dried, three-fourths of a pound of butter, a half pound of citron cut in small pieces, one dozen eggs, one-fourth of an ounce each of cinnamon, nutmeg, and cloves, one wine glass of brandy. Rub butter and sugar together, add the yolks of the eggs well beaten, then flour and spice, the whites of the eggs well beaten to a stiff froth, the brandy, lastly the fruit, which has been well dredged with part of the flour. Beat well, do not stir. Bake four hours. Have a good fire that will not soon need replenishing, oven about as hot as for bread.

COL. JOSEPH H. THORNTON, of Cincinnati, O., an honoured war veteran, was for 18 years a victim of that old soldiers' complaint, chronic diarrhoea. Two dozen bottles of Warner's safe cure restored his liver to health and cured his ailment. His daughter was very ill of an obstinate disorder, which the best physicians failed to relieve. She had also palpitation of the heart, intense pain in the head, nervous dyspepsia, and all other vital organs were involved. By three months' faithful home treatment with Warner's safe cure, alone, she was fully restored to health. This was two years ago. The cure was permanent. Col. Thornton will tell you it is true if you write him and enclose a stamped envelope.

MOTHER'S PLUM PUDDING.—One and one-half cupfuls of suet, rubbed fine; two cupfuls raisins, seeded and chopped; one of currants; one-fourth pound citron, cut small; two tablespoonfuls of flour rubbed through the fruit; three heaping cupfuls of bread crumbs; two tablespoonfuls of ginger; two teaspoonfuls of cinnamon; a half nutmeg, grated; one cupful of New Orleans molasses; add, lastly, one and a half cups of milk, in which a heaping teaspoonful of soda has been dissolved; put in a mould and steam four hours. Or tie in a cloth, wrung from hot water, and dredged with flour, and boil four hours. The water should boil when the pudding is put in, should not cease boiling till the pudding is done, and replenished as it boils away.

CONSUMPTION,

which is Scrofulous Disease of the Lungs, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stages of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatal disease, when first offering this now celebrated remedy to the public, Dr. Pierce thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-cleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequalled, not only as a remedy for consumption of the lungs, but for all

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE

In many cases only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, Consumption, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Druggists.
