

CHICAGO MARKET.

FALL IN PRICES A LONG THE WHOLE LINE.

Chicago, July 13.

The market this morning went back on the signs of promise about a rising change for grain indicated yesterday, July and Dec. oats being those alone in which were advances in to-day's opening prices. But in these the $\frac{1}{2}$ improvement, in latter dealings was followed by further increase, on very limited transactions. The local circumstances yesterday which made for reaction in grain have petered out evidently, leaving the bearish influences characteristic of the early part of the week once more in undisputed possession of the field. Pork lard and short ribs still kept on their upward way. At the openings to-day Sept. pork advanced 15c on yesterday's close, October pork 20c, September lard 5c, October lard 8c, September ribs 5c, Oct. ribs 10c. It was noticeable, however, that the sales on from the opening were at lower prices, for the most part. This if not indicative of a total change is a sign that the somewhat violent advances of the past few days had been for a time slowed down.

Hogs to-day received 25,000; estimate for to-morrow 24,000. Receipts this week 167,000.

Wheat—Car lots received, 77, shipments, 800.

Corn—Car lots received, 625; shipments, 332,223.

Oats—Car lots received, 190; shipments, none.

Hogs left over from yesterday, 1,432; 25,000 last year as compared with 26,000 to-day.
