BRANTFORD.

The work of the Holy League in Brantford does not seem to be lagging, but rather creating greater interest. On the second Sunday after Easter the men's branch attended in a body the Communion of Reparation, and turned out in such numbers as to call forth expressions of satisfaction and gratitude from both the Pastor of the parish and the Director of the League. The new badges were worn on the occasion, and the tasteful designs of both crest and badge were much admired. The members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and of the C. M. B. A. also received Holy Communion on that day, and it is doubtful if there were ever as many men seen approaching the holy table at one time in Brantford as upon this occasion. The pastor spoke encouragingly to the communicants upon the necessity of perseverance in grace, and warned them against returning again to the husks of swine after having partaken worthily of the bread of life. Rev. Father Feeney, the spiritual director, has constantly urged the devotion to the Sacred Heart, and must be pleased at the evidence of its having taken deep and permanent root.
