D. O. S.

PROPOSED RULES AND REGULATIONS

For the guidance of the Standing Sub-Committee of D. O. S., upon provision for Widows and Orphans of Clergymen of the Church of England.

The following is the eleventh object of the Diocesan Church Society:

" It shall also be one of the objects of the Society to provide for the Widows and Orphans of deceased Clergymen, but no part of the Society's funds shall be appropriated to this object except such as shall be specifically given and paid into the Society therefor."

1st. In accordance with the above the Society will open a special account for this object; to be called "The Widows' and Orphans' Fund."

2nd. The Diocesan Church Society undertakes to pay, out of this special fund, for provision for Widows and Orphans, the pensions which become due under the following Rules.

3rd. Every Clergyman of the Church of England within the Diocese, shall be called upon to assure his life within one year from or within one year from taking orders, or from his admission into the Diocese.

4th. Any applicant for assurance who has not complied with this requisition, shall be allowed to assure or not at the option of this Committee, and if allowed, the Committee shall decide upon what terms.

5th. The following shall be the rate of premiums, being the amount ordinarily required by Insurance Offices to insure £100:

At the age of 23	£2 0 0
80	2 10 0
40	3 0 0
50	4 5 0
60	6 15 0

6th. If any Member assured fail to pay the amount of his premium within 30 days after the payment becomes due, he shall forfeit all claim under his assurance. But if he desire to recover his benefit thereof, it shall be in the power of this Committee to readmit him on such terms as they see fit.

7th. Permanent removal of the Clergyman from this Diocese forfeits all claim to the pension.

8th. A temporary absence is permitted for not more than six months, unless special leave be granted by this Sub-Committee.

9th. The Widow of a Clergyman assured under the proposed scheme, shall receive a pension of £25 per annum during life or widowhood.

10th. If the Widow die or marry again before the expiration of ten years from her husband's death, the Children of her deceased husband shall receive the pension for the residue of the ten years. But no part of the pension shall be received by these Children, who have arrived at the age of sixteen years, if males, or eighteen years if females—while those who are still under those respective ages will receive the full amount of the pension.

11th. If the wife die before the husband, his children shall at his death receive the pension for not more than ten years, under the above limitation as to ages.

12th. The Pensions payable half-yearly.

The above Rules will be submitted to the Diocesan Church Society at the next annual meeting, and may then be amended. They are now published in order that those interested in the object may understand its nature.

The Scheme for Mutual Assurance among the Clergy is based upon a capital of £1000, and at least that amount must be collected before it can be carried into operation.
