

LIONS ABOUT.—It is a dangerous thing to trifle with a cold. A darkey preacher once told his hearers that he thanked God that the devil went about as a roaring lion, seeking whom he might devour. He might catch a poor fellow who didn't know that he was near him, but when he heard the roar he could get out of the way, if he didn't, he deserved to die. So when one hears the wheeze or cough which tells of the old lion of consumption lurking around, he should fly and get Minard's Liniment and use it freely on the chest and take Minard's Honey Balsam internally, and get out of the way of danger. These preparations are well known, having been tried for 30 years and are acknowledged by all who use them to be unsurpassed in their soothing and healing properties.

DEATHS.

EATON.—On the 21st inst., at No. 35 St. Urban street, Ethel Amelia, youngest child of William H. and R. J. Eaton, aged 2 years and 9 months.

BAILEY.—At Westport, March 23rd, 1885, little Alma, second daughter of Brother and Sister Charles Bailey, aged 7 years and 8 months.

Thus a break is made in a beautiful little family of children, and one of the brightest jewels is taken from the home on earth to the heavenly home above. She will be sadly missed in the home circle, and in the Sunday School to which she was greatly attached. Only those who have had thus to part with their dear little ones can know how sore a trial this is. How comforting to know that the Lord has said, "Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

CLIFFORD.—Also, at Tiverton, April 16th, 1885, Jennie, third daughter of Brother and Sister John Clifford, aged 16 years.

This is the fourth child our Brother and Sister have lost in less than two years, aged, respectively, 21 years, 18 years, 16 years, and an infant of a few months. But, by the grace of God they can bear this great trouble with Christian fortitude, being cheered with the sweet hope of meeting these dear children in a better home than this. Never were parents more tenderly devoted to children, nor children to parents; yet with the blessed hope of the gospel they could go calmly down to death, and father and mother could confidently commit them to the God who gave them. May the consolation of the gospel be theirs in this great affliction.

Westport, April 23, 1885.

PEARSON.—At East Rawdon, N. S., March 23th, 1885, Sister Harriet Pearson, wife of Bro. Andrew Pearson, aged 46 years. She has left a husband, three sons, seven daughters, aged parents, brothers, sisters, and other relatives to mourn their irreparable loss, which is her eternal gain. Death came very unexpectedly, though she had not been very well for some time. Her pleasant face greeted us at both meetings on our last visit to East Rawdon. We shall miss her as we always expected to see her in her place. She was very consistent in all her deportment. Quiet, competent, kind, and faithful in all the many duties and relations of life to which she was called. We deeply sympathize with Bro. Pearson and his motherless children, a part of whom are quite young, in their sad bereavement. May the Lord sanctify this great affliction to the eternal welfare of that excellent family.

Etherington's Adjustable Spring Bed.

The Spring Bed consists, entirely, of which lock on the slats of a common bedstead; making a most DESIRABLE BED WITH BUT A SINGLE MATTRESS; thus a saving in the price of bedding. They are the best laying, the most easy, most comfortable, most elastic, the cleanest, and the easiest cleaned, the best ventilated (therefore the most healthy), the most durable, the cheapest and the easiest repaired. Most adjustable, as it fits all bedsteads without regard to width or length, and is perfectly noiseless. It can be packed in a trunk 16 inches square, so the most portable; no hiding place for vermin, no sagging to the centre, no slats to become bent and remaining so, but can be adjusted to the unequal weights of the occupants, permitting them to lie on the same level. On all points of merit we solicit comparison with any other Bed in the market.

All orders by mail will receive prompt attention.
