—o—o—

The building formerly occupied by the Canada Life Assurance Company has recently been divided and fitted up as three warehouses, which are now ready for occupation. These buildings are very centrally situated, and well lighted, and very strongly built, and are well suited to a wholesale business of any kind. It is thought that there is a good opening in Hamilton for a wholesale Millinery fancy goods, dry goods, and hats and caps. Each warehouse has a hoist, good, safe accommodation, and convenient access from a yard in the rear of the premises for loading goods.
