Now that the Lenten season is over our friend the men of the palm and needle intend to enjoy themselves in the shape of a ball. To be entitled the "confederated Sail inakers ball. The proceeds to be devoted to the poorer members of said profession, President Raymond Blakiston, Vice do William Blakiston and Wm. Watson, from the working committee. The ordinary members or in other words those who do not aspire to place honours are Messrs. Dawe, Jarvis, Ramsay, Kiplin, Allen, Workington, Tom Murphy, Long Mike and others of the same ilk. The Hon. M. Hudson declines to attend as he has seen something on a grander scale in the old country this past winter. The music on the occasion will be furnished by Hy Egli and his full orchestra. We expect something good as no expense will be spared to make it one of the best of the season. The guest besides the families of the members will be invited and invitation tickets for the same are being got ready. All free. All are requested to enjoy themselves and make merry refreshment will be provided at one end of the room which is R. Blakiston's sail loft corner St. Peter and St. Antoine street L. T. A fore top sail will form a most convenient partition behind which the needful can be had. We wish our friends much pleasure in their little spruce. The 10th of May is the day fixed on Mr. Griffin will serve the hot water and John Daw's cow will be milked on the spot for the benefit of the ladies.

Joseph Frederick stave culler has arrived from Michigan he reports, very small quantity of oak, and staves got out this winter his arrival never appeared in the Chronicle nor Budget very small of the proprietors of those papers.

Joe Bergeron.

The most wretched being this season that we know of is Charley K., with his lster overcoat.

Ha had not counted on a mild winter, and the bare thought of how he is to get he wear out of that coat makes him burst into another perspiration and look more like a stage driver than ever.

Swift.

Sohn Lynch has been appointed sexton of new Liverpool church he studied his profession wit the Late Mr. Barcioum of St. Foys he understands digging graves to perfection and taking half dollars at christenings.
