Nationalists.

Lospon, Oct. 22 -Mr. Fitzpetrick, Riel's Canadian counser, said to day: "It is impossible to pretend that Riel was unfairly tried. Nact abt at the time of the outbreak in the Nortewest, gelevances existed which have since been remedied. Riel commenced the agnation from purely political motives Many people still consider that he rendered valuable solvies to the country. Doubtless the excitement again induced in Ries mental aperration, rendering him incapable of keeping the rebellion within legal limits. On the scaffold Red will become martyr; in prison or in an asylum he would Mr. Firzpatrick advocated the appointment by the Canadian Government of a commission to again examine the prisoner as to his sanity.

ENGLISH PRESS OPINIONS.

Leros, O.t. 23 -The Daily Telegraph, commenting on the Riel case, says :-- 'Ou the whole, yesterday's judgment is so upheid by reason, and comes from lawyers of such andoubted authority, that it may be assumed to cover the justice of the case. The end of the chapter now reats with Canada. Rief cannot complain if Canada, master of the situation, exacts the fast senalties." The Times says it is the universal opinion in Bugland that Riel deserves death.

THE ROYAL WEDDING. MARRIAGE OF PRINCE WALDEMAR AND PRIN-GESS D'ORLEANS.

Er, France, Oat 22 -The marriage of Prince Waltomar, third son of the King of Den mark, and Princess Marie, daughter of the Duc countable for the General's death. The and Doch as do Chatres, was eviderated to squaker dwelt at length upon the want of day at the Contau d'Eu, residence of the unity displayed by the Lineal, and then re-Comte de Paris. The civil cer mony was performed yesterday in Paris by the mayor, and the religious services were conducted here today in the private chapel of the chateau. Among those present were the Queen of Denmark, the Crown Peruce and Perucess of Denmark, the Prince and Princess of Wisles and thoir three daughters, Prince de Jouville the Due de Aumale, the Due de Cazes, the Due and Duchesse de Chastres, Conut Von Holtke, and M. Hurtfeld, the Danish minister. The handsome park and extensive garden surrounning the chateau were to night bril liantly illuminated with electric lights and Chinese lanterns. The town was profusely decorated with flags and bunting and many private houses were also illuminated. Everything passed off pleasantly. At the wedding breaktast the Prince of Wales proposed the toast to the health of the bride and bride-

THE DUCHESS AND THE JOCKEY.

LONDON, Oct. 20 -An interesting story involving romanco of the turf and the highest aristocracy has just been brought to light. A well known sporting duchess had become infatuated with the most successful jockey in the world and proposed to marry him. He was a widower and she had long been a widow. She was amitten with love for the swarthy jack and many gentle over-tures had been made. Her preference was never emphasized until the last race meeting at Nowmarket. Ered. Archer rode Grey Hermit, and ran a dead heat with Modens. When he had failed to win, Archer found that his fee was £500 instead of the oustomary £10. Just after this her ladyship broached the delicate question of a matrimonial partnership. Then Archer reflected. Her ladyship is over 60 years old and Archer is only 30. He wrote a respectful answer to her ladyship's offer of an alliance, but the letter was characteristically horsey. He said that he was overpowered by the intended honor, but he couldn't ride the weight.

Rasmussen fired two shots from a revolver at the Premier, but missed him both times When in the act of firing a third shot the would be assassin was seized by a detective, a number of whom have constantly been in a endance on the Premier for some time past owing to the extreme butted of the population towards him and other members of the Cabinet Rosinussen was quiesly token to prison, the officials fearing an attempt at rescue would be soute. The first shot struck a outton on the Premier's coat and glauced off, the second went wide. Rasmussen declares that he motives were political, as the Premier's condust in the present political controversy is inimical to the state. . .

ATTACK ON THE LIBERALS.

LORD CHURCHILL OPENS HIS ELECTION CAM-PAIGS

BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 23. -Lord Randolph Churchill opened his camp ign here today to the presence of a cr wied and enthusiastic audience. He said the time had arrived for the people to install the Conservatives in power. He regretted the absence of Con Burnaby, who contested Be mingham in the Conservative luterest in 1880 and who was killed in the Soudan campaign. The authors of that ghastly war sought a renewal of the confidence of the electors. Mr Chamberlain, he said, sought a renewal of the confidence of his constituents. (Groans, hisses and cheers) Mr Chamberlain gave splanding promises in regard to the future, but refused to explain the past. He remained silent con cerning the enermous bloodshed of gallant Englishmen in the Soudan. Mr. Gladstone (obsers and hisses) had issued a lengthy and vague manifesto explaining nothing and leaving the situation of the Liberals botiling and confused Lord Randolph admitted the Conservatives were responsible for General

Gordon's mission to the Soudan, out he declared that they were not acserred to the contemps snown by the Liberal party for the question of colonial option, add ing that a similar policy had ouse! England to lose her American colomes. Touching the present depression in business, Lord Randolps and that a sound foreign policy and and economi al management of the country's fluences would go far towards reviving the brade of Great Brit in Ho said that war with Bucman as and probably result in the annexation of that country by the Indian Government. The meeting was upcoarious throughout, but was generally favorable to Lora Churchill.
