Mercantile Summary.

IT APPEARS from returns, kept by the Quebec Harbour and River police, that twelve hundred sailors have deserted from their vessels at that port during the season of navigation just past.

THE firm of Starr, Gill, & Co. manufacturers of confectionery at Brockville, have dissolved, but the business does not change its name, the Messrs. Gill carry it on under the same style.

ANOTHER instance of the readiness with which persons without a dollar of capital obtain credit is furnished by the failure of two young men who had been in business a few months in Marlbank. The liabilities are between two and three thousand dollars, and the assets a little over six hundred.

A NEW branch of industry is being set on foot in Nova Scotia. Several fish packing houses finding their occupation gone for the winter, are now at work in packing rabbits, partridges and other game. A good market is expected in England for this class of canned goods.

OF ALL the salt wells in Goderich, only two were kept producing during last summer, and those at a loss. Clinton and Seaforth wells are in no better condition as there is no demand for salt proportioned to the production of it. One man in Carronbrook, who gets cheaper fuel and can command cheaper freight, manages to continue operations.

THE Commercial Travellers tax we noted a week or two ago as having been levied, but not collected, in the city of Halifax, has again come to the surface; one of the aldermen having at a recent meeting of the City Council
