

CORRIDOR CULLINGS.

Do not forget the Banjo Concert on Friday night.

The Political Science Club meeting for last Thursday was postponed.

On Saturday afternoon Mr. B. K. Sandwell gave a delightful afternoon tea, in his room in Residence, to a number of his friends.

For the past week or so, a visitor to the Parliamentary library might well mistake it for an extension of the University library reading-room.

On Monday morning Prof. Morse Stephens lectured to the fourth year class in history on "Nationalism." Needless to say, it was much enjoyed.

Mr. W. B. Scott, '97, the representative of the Literary Society to the Trinity Conversat, and Mr. H. M. Little, '97, to the Pharmacy dinner, discharged their respective duties during the past week. Both report very enjoyable times.

Mr. Ivan L. Hyland, B.A., '95, is holding forth as curate of St. Stephen's church, Seattle, U. S. A.

The general meeting of the Glee Club, for the purpose of nomination of officers for the ensuing year, and of allowing amendments to be made in the Constitution, will be held next Friday.

The following clipping may show the disadvantages under which our various athletic organizations labor in competing with those upon the other side of the line: "The Candidates for the lacrosse team have been prevented from regular field practice for some time owing to the cold weather. The squad work on the asphalt or in the gymnasium, however, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Since the holidays most of last year's men have been resting, only the new can didates coming out every day. No regular games have been scheduled yet for the spring, but scrub games will be played as soon as the ground becomes soft enough.—Harvard Crimson.

After the lecture in the Students' Union building on Saturday afternoon, President and Mrs. Loudon entertained, at their home on St. George Street, a large number of their friends, for the purpose of meeting the University's distinguished guest, Professor Morse Stephens.

Everything seems to point to a most successful season for the Baseball Club. An extended tour is being arranged by the manager, Mr. J. L. Counsell. A second team will be put in the field, so that all may have an opportunity of gaining practice in matches. The membership fee will be one dollar. It will be endeavored to secure the playing of inter-year matches.

Shorthand Class

One of the members of the Class lately concluded is taking copious notes of lectures, beautifully written, and one of the lady pupils of the same Class writes to a pupil in the present one that she has attained a speed of 120 words a minute.

"The Whole Art of Advertising"

Is not possessed by any one man or firm, but each of us has a share. An ad. that is read to the end and remembered is the ad. that brings business. This space is being used by Curry Bros. to call attention to their business, and will be read every week by prospective patrons. We judge value by results, and if this ad. attracts attention please mention it when you leave that order for printing at 414 Spadina Avenue. It will encourage us to renew our space next year.

A gentleman, on receiving a copy of this work, wrote a friend: "That Canada Company volume is not an ordinary compilation by any means. I was delighted on opening it last night (it kept me out of bed a good hour) to find its combination of homeliness and sparkle....The authors write freely and well; manifestly they have been brought up in a literary atmosphere."
