THE EDUCATIONAL REVIEW,

P. O. Box 850.

Fredericton, N. B.

The Editor wishes to apologize for a printer's omission which occurred in the May issue. The article by Major Gordon (Ralph Connor) was the digest of a speech given before the National Conference on Character Education held in Winnipeg last autumn.

The Editor will spend the summer in Moncton, New Brunswick, and will be pleased to have any teacher or friend of the Review call upon her.

The present issue tells of the opportunities for study provided by our Provinces during the summer. It is hoped that many teachers will avail themselves of these privileges.

The Educational Review begins a new year in August. Our ambition is "every teacher in the Atlantic Provinces a subscriber for 1920-1921." If all teachers get behind the Review we will be able to publish an educational magazine second to none in Canada. We are planning to improve our present departments and add others. We have many excellent articles promised for next year from local educators and writers from outside. Surely no teacher can afford to deny support to the only teachers' magazine in our Atlantic Provinces.

The Educational Review is the only teachers' magazine published in the Atlantic Provinces. Its long period of service recommends it to your interest. It begins the 33rd year of its history in August, and we wish to celebrate this fact by enlarging its service to our teachers. It is our desire to improve the present departments and add others. We want each month to discuss the problems of the Primary, Intermediate and advanced grades in special subjects as Reading, English, Spelling, History, Geography and to continue our Nature Talks, varying them with the season.

We want one High School article each month and can promise our readers articles on subjects of general interest by our foremost Provincial educators and well-known writers without, but this ideal can only be attained if our Atlantic Province Teachers give The Educational Review their heartiest support. Subscribe now for 1920-21. All new subscriptions paid in June will include the June-July issue of this year. Subscription price $1.25 in advance.
