

out in International Atomic Energy Agency document INFCIRC/66/Rev.2, as well as in any subsequent amendments thereto that are accepted by the Parties, and that provides for the application of safeguards to items which the Parties consider to be subject to the Agreement."

And Article VII is also to be modified and shall now read:

"1. The Parties shall consult annually or at any other time at the request of either Party to ensure the effective fulfillment of the obligations of this Agreement. To this end, each Party shall, inter alia, provide the other Party with such reports and access to such other data as the other Party may consider appropriate in order to satisfy the other Party that items referred to in this Agreement are being used and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

2. The Parties may conclude supplementary arrangements between the appropriate governmental authorities to facilitate the effective implementation of this Agreement."

If the Government of the Republic of Korea agrees with the proposal set forth herein, I have the honour to propose that this Note, which is equally authentic in English, French and Korean together with Your Excellency's reply to that effect, shall constitute an Amendment to the Agreement between our two Governments which shall enter into force on the date of Your Excellency's reply and shall remain in force as long as the Agreement remains in force and may be amended or terminated by written agreement between our two Governments.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration."

I have further the honour to confirm that the foregoing proposal is acceptable to the Government of the Republic of Korea and that Your Excellency's Note together with this reply, which is equally authentic in Korean, English and French, shall constitute an agreement between our two Governments on this matter, which shall enter into force on the date of this Note.
