

"a) Combine the production programmes of the United States, the United Kingdom and Canada, into a single integrated programme adjusted to the strategic requirements of the war as indicated to the Board by the Combined Chiefs of Staff and to all relevant production factors. In this connection the Board shall take account of the need for maximum utilization of the productive resources available to the United States, the British Commonwealth of Nations and the United Nations, the need to reduce demands on shipping to a minimum, and the essential needs of the civilian populations.

(b) In close collaboration with the Combined Chiefs of Staff, assure continuous adjustment of the combined production programme to meet changing military requirements.

3. To this end the Combined Chiefs of Staff and the Combined Munitions Assignments Board shall keep the Combined Production and Resources Board currently informed concerning military requirements, and the Combined Production and Resources Board shall keep the Combined Chiefs of Staff and the Combined Munitions Assignments Board currently informed concerning facts and possibilities of production.

4. To facilitate continuous operation, members of the Board shall each appoint a Deputy and the Board shall form a Combined Staff. The Board shall arrange for such conferences amongst United States and United Kingdom and Canadian personnel as it may from time to time deem necessary or appropriate to study particular production needs and utilize the Joint War Production Staff in London, the Combined Raw Materials Board, the Joint Aircraft Committee and other existing combined or national agencies of war production in such a manner and to such extent as it shall deem necessary."

4. Exchange of telegrams between the Prime Minister of Canada and President of Chile, November 7, 1942.

On November 7 the Prime Minister sent the following telegram to the President of the Republic of Chile:

"I should like to avail myself of the appointment of Canada's first Minister to Chile to extend very cordial greetings to Your Excellency.

We were very happy two months ago to welcome to Ottawa, as the first Chilean Minister to Canada, the distinguished citizen of Chile, Dr. Eduardo Grove. When, shortly after the new year, Mr. Warwick Chipman, the Canadian Minister to Chile, takes up his residence in Santiago, our countries will be represented by permanent missions in each other's capitals. Mr. Chipman will
