

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION AGAINST DOPING IN SPORT

Annex II – Therapeutic Use Exemptions

1. The purpose of this Annex is to provide a list of substances which are prohibited in sport, but which may be used for therapeutic purposes, provided that the athlete has obtained a Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE) from the relevant authority.

2. The substances listed in this Annex are those which are prohibited in sport, but which are not prohibited in the general population.

3. The substances listed in this Annex are those which are prohibited in sport, but which are not prohibited in the general population.

4. The substances listed in this Annex are those which are prohibited in sport, but which are not prohibited in the general population.

5. The substances listed in this Annex are those which are prohibited in sport, but which are not prohibited in the general population.