

I was particularly pleased during my recent visit to New York to speak to the General Assembly to have been able to review with you issues of concern to Canadians and to the world community.

I pledge our cooperation to work with you, Mr. Secretary-General, in the furtherance of the aims of the Charter.