

PREFACE

This volume provides an Analytical Index to the Official Report of the Debates of the House of Commons for the year 1909-10, and is designed as a ready reference for the use of Members of Parliament and others who have to make research.

The work is in two sections—a Subject Index and a Name Index. In the first section the questions discussed are treated analytically under the subject heading; in the second section, the members' names are arranged alphabetically and the subjects discussed by each member follow the name in alphabetical order.

The volume has been prepared by instruction of the Debates Committee of the House, and by Order of Parliament.
