

PRIVILEGES AND POWERS OF PARLIAMENT—continued.

194, 374; disobedience to orders of house, 195; attempts to bribe, 196; witnesses, counsel, and other persons in attendance on parliament, privileged, 196-197; publication of parliamentary papers, 197; punishment of a contempt of privilege, Ib.; power of commitment, 197-198; its duration, 199; procedure in case of a breach, 199-201; power to summon and examine witnesses, 202; witnesses should answer questions touching privileges, 204; of provincial legislatures, 205; decision of the supreme court re Landers vs. Woodworth, 205-207; provincial acts defining privileges, 207-209; questions of privilege, their varied character, 316; have precedence over all other questions, 316-319.

Privileges and elections, committee of; appointed in the Commons, 428, 430; matters referred (contractors in parliament) 131 et seq.; (eligibility of certain members), 137, 155; (double return) 127.

Privy Council of Canada; appointed to aid and advise the governor-general, 52; origin of name, 52-53; the ministry, 54-56; its members present addresses to his excellency on behalf of either house, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298; bring down messages, 301.

Privy Council, judicial committee of; their decisions on questions of legislative jurisdiction, 85 et seq., 681 et seq.

Proclamations; calling parliament together for despatch of business, 221; prorogued by, after close of session, 237; for dissolution of Parliament, 238, 240.

Progress reported; from committee of the whole house, 418, 420; from committees of supply or ways and means, 483.

Property qualification; required for senators, 106; declaration respecting, Ib.; renewed at beginning of a new parliament, 106-107; not required for members of the Commons, 112.

Property qualification—continued.

Protest; of senators to a vote, 392; may assent to it in whole or in part, Ib.; expunged by order, Ib.

Public accounts, committee of; appointed in the Commons, 428, 430; not in the Senate, 408.

Public Acts; local and private acts to be deemed, 617.

QUARRELS between members; speaker interposes to prevent challenges, 374.

Quebec Act of 1774. See Parliamentary Institutions of Canada, III.

QUEEN, The; represented by the governor-general, 49; addresses to, 293, et seq. See Crown.

Queen's Birthday; houses adjourn over, 242.

QUESTIONS:

Proposed by the chair, 310; how determined, Ib.; when complicated, may be divided, 312-313; of privilege, 316 et seq.; amendments thereto, 325-333; means of postponing or superseding them, by adjournment, 333-335; by proceeding to orders, 335-336; by previous question, 336; same question not to be twice offered in same session, 339; evasions of the general rule, 339-340; debate thereon, 342 et seq.; putting question, new rule in English Commons, 380; voting thereon, 384 et seq.

Questions put by members; notice of required, 308, 309; in the Senate, 321-322; latitude allowed, Ib.; no entry in lords' journals of inquiries, 322 n.; rules limiting their terms in Commons, 323; place on order paper, Ib.; no argumentative matter allowed, Ib.; clerks may amend notice of