

of his country, should be deprived of the right to say how that country is to be governed. When this bill finally passed the House of Commons and passed on to the Senate, it was so mutilated by the irresponsible majority as represented in the Upper Chamber to make it almost unworkable and of doubtful value. To accomplish this crime, it was necessary first of all for that body to set at defiance the law and the constitution of our country, under the British North America Act, which provided for the appointment of senators to meet the growing conditions of Western Canada. The obvious reason for this action on the part of this irresponsible majority was to continue as long as possible the control of Laurierism in Canada. Kind Providence has, however, now put an end to the further practice of crimes against the Canadian people from this quarter.

What loyal citizen will say this war can be carried on to a successful conclusion without money and without means, yet Laurierism declared by their voice and vote in parliament that we must not have the necessary money for this great task. But worse still is the general political sniping policy that is being actively carried on by Laurierism. During the past two years under a supposed truce, under the protection of the white flag, Laurierism has by every contemptible means imaginable, endeavored to subject the government of the day to the most dishonorable and dishonest misrepresentation of our true con-
