Monday, June 22, was the date fixed by the Mimico council for the Court of Revision to hear appeals against the 1914 assessment. The court will be held in the school hall, corner of Church and Mimico avenue. A scene was created by Frank Keir, who protested that he would not carry out his contract for the removal of garbage and septic tanks out of earth in the village. Since he started almost three months ago, he had to carry two loads instead of one, and he could not do the job for the money. He understood that the station house, school, house and churches would be a separate matter.

WILD GREETING FOR SURVIVORS

Crew of Lost Empress Arrives at Liverpool and Rejoices Exciting Welcome.

The station had been poked by dense throng for several hours, and when the train steamed in from Glasgow at 7 o'clock, there was a rush to the carriage doors. Police and railway officials attempted to hold the crowd back, but they were powerless, and screaming women with babies in their arms, were crushed against the train. The welcome was a wild one. Some of the women had the good fortune to reach their husbands, but the 70 odd survivors were soon swarmed by the crowd. Pitiful reunions were witnessed. Women threw themselves hysterically into the arms of their husbands; children, as they caught sight of their fathers, tried to reach them, and even the big, gruff firemen could not restrain their emotion. One of the Liverpool survivors was William Clark, who had passed through the two greatest tragedies known, the wreck of the Empress of Ireland and the Titanic.

That must keep its possessions together. The exhibition, he declared, was worthy of its sympathy of the people, and received, it because it bound all the British possessions together in one old and was the greatest force in building a greater Toronto. You have played in bringing the exhibition to its present position of prosperity and prominence. Your cheerful encouragement has been a direct help to every director and official of the exhibition. It is only necessary to point to the splendid records of the last two years to show the success that has attended your occupancy of the office of chief executive. It is fitting, therefore, that we who have been associated with you in the work should in some way recognize the sacrifices you have made in carrying it forward, and we will seek you to accept this silver service as a mark of our feeling for you as a fellow director, confidence in you as president, and as a man for whom we can only feel the deepest affection and highest respect.

United States Delegates Reject Proposals for Establishment of New Provisional Government.

Canadian Press Despatch. NIAGARA FALLS, June 9.—The U.S. is unwilling to extend recognition to a new provisional government, it named according to the method prescribed by the Mexican delegates, which is that of foreign affairs the man who is agreed upon here by the new government. The Washington administration contends that if Gen. Huerta is permitted to name the provisional government, by constitutional provision, would be elevated to the presidency, even the selection be made here, such an act would be construed as recognition of the Huerta government. On this issue the mediating plenipotentiaries came to a flat disagreement late today, at a conference held for consideration of the exact method by which the new provisional government in Mexico would be created out of the present regime. Also the three South American diplomats argued strongly form the Mexican viewpoint, there was good reason to believe tonight that the Mexican delegates would not insist on this arrangement if they found the U.S. absolutely determined against it.

Huerta is permitted to name the provisional government, by constitutional provision, would be elevated to the presidency, even the selection be made here, such an act would be construed as recognition of the Huerta government.

The results of the tests of stone in the quarries inspected by the civic authorities with a view to purchase were submitted to the board of control by City Engineer MacIntosh. The stone from the Dunlop quarry gave the most satisfactory, although the test of the Dundas stone has not yet been received. Mayor Allan, referring to the Engineers' report, said that the board of control should be asked to consider the opening of a fund in aid of the Hamilton ratepayers of the victims. Some people in the city might be left destitute, and although there was a fund of $100,000 in the city, it devolved upon them to consider whether they should join with the present fund to make a larger fund.
