GOVERNMENT IS OVERAWED BY ULSTER VOLUNTEERS, CHARGES REDMOND EUROPEAN POWERS STRIVE FOR PEACE—OUTLOOK BRIGHTER

DUBLIN AFFRAY HAS WIDENED GAP CONCESSIONS TO ULSTER DEFERRED PENDING A FULL OFFICIAL INQUIRY

Premier Asquith Has Laid Amending Bill
Over Indefinitely, Owing to Inflamed Feeling—Redmond Accuses Government of Being Overawed By Ulster Volunteers—Asquith Denies Partiality Shown By Government.

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, July 27.—The first effect of the Dublin tragedy has been to smash Premier Asquith's plans for taking up the amending bill tomorrow. The premier announced today that the matter had been indefinitely postponed. The Irish members are so exasperated over the killing of four persons and the wounding of many others in the clash yesterday between the regular troops and the Nationalist volunteers, that they are in no frame of mind to grant any concessions to Ulster. The Laborites and many Liberals support them.

The government announced in the house of commons today that Deputy Police Commissioner Harrell, who ordered out the troops, had been suspended and that his superior, Commissioner Sir John Ross, who expressed a desire to share the responsibility, had resigned his office.

TO HOLD SPECIAL INQUIRY

A special inquiry will be held, probably by judicial commission. In the meantime, the demand for the removal of the Scottish Borderers from Dublin has not been granted, largely because an attempt to march them out would be the signal for attacks by the mobs. They will remain prisoners in the barracks until the anger of the people has cooled.

The Nationalist members of parliament held a meeting this afternoon and showed more animus against the castle than the government. They consider Viceroy Aberdeen's official family prejudiced against the Nationalists.

REDMOND STARTS DISCUSSION

A heated discussion was started in the house of commons by John Redmond, the Nationalist leader, who demanded an impartial inquiry into the conduct of the troops, and their punishment, if the shooting was not justified. He demanded also that the regiment should be removed from Ireland, that the proclamation against the importation of arms into Ireland should be withdrawn because it constituted a serious danger and that the law be administered impartially.

He called for the suspension of Sir John Ross, the police commissioner of Dublin, and said: "We had an experience of him in the Larkin riots. He is unfit to hold his office. He is a well-known political partisan."

BRITISH GOVERNMENT IMPOTENT

Mr. Redmond compared "this monstrous business" with the parades of armed volunteers in Belfast. "To such a state of impotence has the British Government been reduced in Ireland," he said, "that a subordinate official is able to call in soldiers without consulting the executive of the country."

He expressed the hope that the Irish people would not blame the troops too much, and concluded amid great cheers: "Four-fifths of the Irish people will not submit any longer to be bullied and punished for conduct which is allowed to go scot free in Ulster by another section of their fellow-countrymen."

HALF MILLION DOLLARS FIRE LOSS IN LUMBER YARDS AT HULL, QUEBEC

Millions of Feet of Lumber Destroyed and Fear Expressed Early This Morning That Whole City Would Be Imperiled—Firemen Called From Ottawa.

Canadian Press Despatch.

OTTAWA, Tuesday, July 28.—A fire broke out in Gilmour and Hughson's lumber yards just east of Brewery Creek, Hull, shortly before ten o'clock last night, and at a late hour this morning was still burning fiercely. Three million feet of valuable lumber have already been destroyed, as well as a quantity of mill wood belonging to Simon Dupuis, and more is certain to go.

Fanned by the wind, the flames spread thru the lumber with great rapidity in the direction of the residential section of the city, and should it increase the whole city would be endangered.

Aid From Ottawa.

The fire is supposed to have originated in the rear of the Simon Dupuis residence. It had made considerable headway before it was discovered and spread rapidly. The Hull fire brigade were utterly unable to check the advance of the flames and a call for aid was sent to the Ottawa fire department.

RENEWED RIOTS WITHOUT GRAVE CONSEQUENCE

Whole Nationalist Ireland Excited—Town Councils Pass
Resolutions Denouncing the "Massacre"—Soldiers Confined to Barracks—Irish Volunteers Cheered

Canadian Press Despatch.

DUBLIN, July 27.—Rioting broke out again tonight, but subsided without serious results. The rumor went about that the Scottish Borderers would entrain at the Amiens Street Station. A great crowd, for the most part from the slums, surrounded the station and amused themselves by stoning the street cars.

Six hundred volunteers paraded thru the streets, a crowd of 4000 following them, marching in step and singing.

Feeling runs high thruout Nationalist Ireland. Town councils are adopting resolutions denouncing "the massacre." The soldiers of the Limerick and Kilkenny garrisons are confined to barracks, and concerts by

PEACE DELEGATES WILL SUPPORT GEN. HUERTA

So Declared Elguero, Ex-Member of A. B. C. Conference,
While in Toronto Yesterday
—Rabasa and Rodriguez
Expected Here for Conference.

The Diaz-Huerta counter revolution in Mexico, which many foment in Toronto, is to be supported by the three men who represented the former president at the Niagara Falls peace conference, according to Senor Luis Elguero, ex-member of the delegation, who was in the city last night to confer with several prominent Mexicans, said to have arrived in Toronto during the day. Senor Elguero left last night on the late train for Montreal, where he will meet Gen. Huerta upon his arrival in Canada.

Senors Emilio Rabasa and Rodriguez, who are at present in New York, are to arrive in Toronto before the end of the week, according to Senor Elguero. They are to remain here several days in conference with Gen. Diaz and other Mexicans. It was said, before they proceeded to Montreal to meet the ex-dictator, Senor Rabasa will be accompanied by his four daughters, while Senor Rodriguez will bring his son and daughter, who are with him in New York.

Alto Senor Elguero was silent as to the exact details of his visit here. It was pointed out by a prominent Mexican that the three mediators had remained within calling distance of General Diaz since the close of negotiations in Niagara Falls, and that they probably would constitute General Huerta's most valuable supporters in the new movement. Neither of the men desire to see further war and rebellion in Mexico, it was said, but they believe the only means of peace is a Cienfuegos government, based upon an election with a strong man at the head.

Senor Elguero heads one of the great railways of the republic, and always has been one of General Huerta's staunchest supporters. Senor Rabasa, an authority on international law, is said to be held in high esteem by his countrymen, while Senor Rodriguez is a capitalist of considerable personal fortune, as well as an ardent patriot, who for years has worked for the cause of internal peace in Mexico.

WEE YORK METHODS.

Jeff: Is that ye, John? Hae ye got Billy yet?
John: Yup, Scotland' Yard's comin' out to get him.
Jeff: Fatna fer?
John: Not taken his name off McEachern's advisory board.
Jeff: Did he pit it on?
John: That's th' hui trubbel! It turns out he didn't put it on jus' when I thot I had 'im. I sprung it oos' I thot I'd caught him foul. But now there goin' to take him to Inglan' an' try him for forgery an' fur not taken his name off when he found it on without a permit.

Jeff: But people are sayin', John, that ye're no huntin' Billy, but that ye've pit it all over th' McEacherns, an' that Norman McEachern is travelin' in motor cars wif yer Johnny in England an' Ireland th' noo.
John: I read in 'TV' Tey that Johnny goot to be in their office a lot. They wur great frends. O' course we don't want to hurt any o' Johnny's partners, but we want to get Billy on th' stone pile in th' York County jail yard.
Jeff: I'd sell Johnny's frends if I get home before th' hot weather's o'er.
John: That our country should be made a sort of scoria to th' British people cos o' Billy's crimes makes me weep fur joy when I think o' a Scotland' Yard man goin' into him! He's th' wurst man we ever had in this York. An' jocken an' Siman an' Mc-Kerry an' McKelvie's in rest.

Jeff: Fat about Maister Gwamey, John? John: He was only peddin' minin' stock to th' likker men; he wurnt tryin' to sell 'em 'im. Besides, he's a idol o' ourn.

BRITAIN'S PEACE CONFERENCE PLAN SUPPORTED BY FRANCE AND ITALY RUSSIA SEEKS TO SWAY AUSTRIA

In Peacemaker's Role

Sir Edward Grey, British foreign secretary, on success of whose efforts peace of Europe depends.

NO INTERVENTION PRESENT POLICY OF GERMANY

As Ally of Austria, Kaiser Holds Aloof From Conference, But Will Not Hamper Efforts of Others—Mobilization of Russian Army is Denied.

Canadian Press Despatch.

BERLIN, July 27.—Important conferences were held at Potsdam this afternoon between the German Emperor, the imperial chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, and the strategic heads of the army and navy, to determine definitely the German policy in the crisis.

The British and French ambassadors, Sir Edward Goschen and Jules Cambon, called on the minister of foreign affairs, Herr Von Jagow, with communications from their governments.

Authentic information has been received in Berlin that Russia, tho not mobilizing her army, is taking certain precautionary military measures.

Runs on the savings banks by small depositors occurred in various parts of Germany.

These were the outstanding features of the day, which, despite the first bloodshed in the Austro-Servian conflict, registered a slight but distinct gain in optimism regarding the situation.

To Localize Conflict.
The British ambassador made no concrete proposals. It is understood he told the German foreign minister that Great Britain's object was not to intervene in the Austro-Servian controversy, which, he declared, was not England's affair, but to endeavor to find a basis on which Great Britain, France and Germany, by action at Vienna and St. Petersburg, could prevent the spread of the conflict.

The French ambassador proposed that Germany use her influence at Vienna in favor of moderation. He was informed that Germany was perfectly willing to let the other powers try, but as Austria's ally, could not interfere with Austria's freedom of action.

Russians Not Mobilizing.
The official announcement of Russia that no mobilizing of her army had been ordered was supplemented by trustworthy information from Warsaw, that among the precautionary military means taken were the withdrawal of troops in Poland from the immediate frontiers of Germany and Austria for concentration in the interior, the recall of the Russian troops from their summer camps and the cancelling of leave of absence of all officers. The border is watched by a semi-military force attached to the treasury department known as "frontier guards."

Under den Linden was jammed to-night with crowds which hoped that the emperor would come to Berlin, but they were disappointed.

Minor Engagement on Danube Between Austrians and Servians Reported—Germany Holds Aloof, But Russian Diplomacy May Prove Effective—Austria Has Apparently Not Yet Undertaken Serious Military Operations.

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, July 27.—An engagement between Austrians and Servians is reported to have occurred on the Danube, but no details are available, and it is not considered to have been of importance. As far as the censorship permits, it is known that Austria has not yet opened her military operations.

Meanwhile, diplomacy is proceeding with energy along two separate lines to avert, if possible, and, if impossible, to localize the war.

First, Sir Edward Grey, the British secretary of state for foreign affairs, has proposed to the powers a scheme for joint mediation, which, it is stated, France and Italy have already accepted. Germany has not yet replied, and her acceptance is regarded as doubtful.

Four Powers as Mediators.

Sir Edward Grey explained in the house of commons his idea, which was that four powers—Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy—should co-operate in an endeavor to arrange the dispute between Austria and Servia on the basis of Serbia's reply to the Austrian ultimatum. This reply he regarded as the foundation on which friendly and impartial powers should be able to arrange an acceptable settlement.

Should the British foreign secretary's efforts fail to avert war, it is expected that he will endeavor by some means to prevent complications by confining the hostilities to Austria and Servia.

The second line of diplomatic endeavor, from which even more is hoped tonight, is taking place at St. Petersburg between the Russian minister of foreign affairs, Sergius Sazonoff, and the Austrian ambassador. It is understood that M. Sazonoff is making a strenuous effort to bring about a direct understanding, and that a solution on these lines would be more agreeable to Germany than Great Britain's conference proposal.

Russia Conciliatory.

The Russian Emperor has postponed his intended visit to Finland in order to remain in the capital during the crisis. It is said that Russia is urging Servia to give Austria the fullest possible satisfaction.

An extremely warlike spirit prevails in Vienna, where the evening papers declare that the Servians are only seeking evasions, and that therefore it is impossible for the Austrian Government to retreat. Further, they hint that even should Servia accept the Austrian ultimatum unconditionally and offer to pay the cost of Austria's mobilization, Austria now would be compelled to ask for quite new guarantees.

MANY STEAMERS ARE FOG BOUND

Fifteen Liners Have Sailing Dates Disarranged Owing to Bad Weather in Gulf.

MONTREAL, July 27.—Foggy weather in the lower gulf has disorganized the sailing dates of 15 passenger liners, a number of which are several days out of their schedule.

Capt. Williams of the Grampian, which ship arrived at this port today about the same time the Megantic got in, said while his vessel was fog-bound 200 miles east of Cape Race for two days, the Calgarian, Alsatian, Royal George, Scotian, Magnatic, Pomeranian, Sicilian, Au Lake, Manitoba and Athenia were also waiting for the fog to lift before proceeding on their way. The following vessels have been held up by the fog, outbound: Corsican, Teutonic, Sauronia, Andania and Sicilian. The Sicilian is being delayed both coming and going.

CHATHAM FACES A POWER FIGHT

Negotiations for Purchase of Private System Dropped
—Hydro Plant is Suggested.

CHATHAM, July 27.—At a meeting of the city council tonight it was decided to discontinue all negotiations for the purchase of the Chatham gas and electric light plant and to immediately take up with the Hydro-Electric Commission the question of establishing an independent hydro-electric system in Chatham to enter into competition with the Chatham Gas Company. Some time ago the hydro-electric recommended the purchase of the Chatham Gas Company plant for the sum of $410,000 to act as a distributing agency for Niagara power. The company after much discussion has refused to take this amount and after trying hard to complete the deal the council has now decided to negotiate for the erection of an independent plant.

COLD RECEPTION GIVEN C.N.R. LOAN EUROPEAN WAR SCARE IS CAUSE

Canadian Associated Press Cable.

LONDON, Tuesday Morning, July 28.—Only twenty-one per cent. of the Canadian Northern loan has been taken up by the public. Commenting on its poor reception, The Daily News says such an unsatisfactory result is not to be wondered at. It is quite true that the debentures possess many attractions, their currency being for twenty years, their rate of interest 4 per cent., their price of issue 94, and the unconditional guarantee of the Canadian Government. These would be great attractions in normal times, but the times are not normal. War is in the air and that explains why the reception was not warmer.
