TEAMS PREPARING FOR OPENING GAMES

Saturday's Fixtures—Rugby News and Gossip.

Argonauts had forty men out last night and Rev. Biddy Barr and Jack Newton will keep them working at top speed for the balance of the week in preparation for their game with the Tigers on Saturday. Colin Simpson, late of Victoria College, will likely catch an inside wing job. Russell Smith, from T.R. & A.A., is sure of a scrimmage job. Holden of Ottawa, is an Argo surety and will fight it out with Clark for a middle wing position. Gordon Murray, Mac Murray and Platt are likely outside men. Bobbie Davidson and Mate Simpson look to have the centre scrim jobs safe. Beecher Gale, Dr. Lawson and Babe Burkart are ready to play. Dutch Heuther will pass up football from a playing standpoint and give ball from a playing standpoint and give all his time to managing the scullers.

A Kingston despatch says: Ken Wil-Mams was out in the Rugby line- up in the Queens practice this afternoon. He has registered at the college for a course in banking.

Hamilton Times: The Rowing Club officials are at a loss to know just what to do with Becker. The sturdy little half-back is anxious to play the game, but according to reports the other teams in the O.R.F.U. will not play against him. The Rowing Club officials do not intend to play Becker if they find out that he played semi-professional ball, and in order to find this out they have sent letters to the west to see if he was the man who played with Calgary. If the report is true Becker will have to give up the game until the A.A.U. consent to let him play.

Hamilton Herald: It is the consensus of opinion that the Hamilton senior clubs will win their respective unions and get into the semi-finals for the Dominion honors. None of the Big Four teams appear at this date to be strong enough to prevent a Tiger victory, while the Rowing Clb showed sufficient strength in their first game with the Argos to warrant the belief that they will win the O.R.F.U.

they were in action against the T.R. & A.A. team, but still the big rover refuses to turn out. The Tiger officials have been after Robert to play, but they cannot get a definite answer from him, and it looks as if he is thru for the season at least.

The Parkdale Rugby & A.C. requests all players to be at practice tonight at Seedeck at Exhibition Park, in uniform. Advance Guard, Including BRITISH RUGBY.

Welshmen and members of the Torento Welsh Football Club are asked to attend the general meeting, to be held at the Carls-Rite Hotel tonight, at 8.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 6.—By defeating Boston, 3 to 2, in the opening game of the double-header which closed the National League season here today, Brooklyn finished in fifth place, one full game ahead of Philadelphia. This is the best showing a Brooklyn team has made since 1907, when the Superbas ended the season in fifth place. Boston took the second game. 7 to 3, in seven innings. The new champions put a makeshift team in the field, and its heavy hitting of Rucker's offerings resulted in an early lead, which Brooklyn could not overcome. Strand, pitching for Boston, made a good impression. Scores:

HARD LUCK ON BRAVES' TRAIL

Red Smith Breaks His Leg at Brooklyn — Upsets Stal-lings' Plans.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—James C. Smith, third-baseman of the Boston National League Club, broke his leg above the ankle in sliding to second base in the ninth innings of the first game of the double-header with Brooklyn today, Smith will be unable to play in world's series. will be unable to play in world's series.

Deal, Dugey or Whitted will probably play in Smith's place in the big series.

"Red" Smith was obtained from the series.
Schmidt had just singled in the ninth

Schmidt had just singled in the ninth innings. Smith followed suit, and on a throw to third to catch Schmidt, tried to reach second. He made a perfect fade-away slide, crooking his right leg into the bag. Then Cutshaw noticed that Smith could not rise and was apparently in agony. Examination disclosed that his leg had been broken just above the ankle. An ambulance was summoned at once, while Smith was carried to the clubhouse. The whole Boston team was nearly prostrated at the accident.

Manager Stallings and Captain Evers, questioned tonight as to what effect the loss of Smith would have on the work of the Braves in the championship series, both declared that his absence would not be a serious handicap to the team's effectiveness, as Deal could fill the place satisfactorily against the Athletics in the big series.
