

LONG RACE AT DUFFERIN MADE THE TIMERS DIZZY

No Time Taken in Third Race—
Dayton Stables Win
Two.

Another good crowd attended the running of the second day's races of the Metropolitan Racing Association at Dufferin Park yesterday afternoon. The rain put the track in fine condition. The books got the best of the day. Chitras and Duquesne being the only choices to win. The third race was over the long route, one and one-sixteenth miles. In this race a field of six went to the post. The timer evidently got dizzy, as the horses had to pass the judges' stand three times, so in place of giving the figures he wrote on the board no time taken. The Dayton stable won two races. Jockey, Jeanine riding, being the summary: FIRST RACE—Purse $300, for three-year-olds and up, about five furlongs: 1. Jack Nunnally, 108 (Jenkins), 8 to 1, even and 1 to 2.

PROBATE OF MRS. COX'S WILL HELD UP BY JUDGE
Direction is Given, However, That Alterations Made Are Illegal.
Judge Morgan yesterday cancelled the order which he made for probate in the will of Mrs. Amy Cox. It is understood in the surrogate court that when the judge signed the order upon an affidavit of E. T. Malone, he did not intend to admit the will to probate, but in signing the document merely directed that when the will is probated any alterations or interlineations made by Mrs. Cox would not be legal in accordance with the statute.
