Providence Press, Providence, R. I.

Among the publishing craft the Advertising Agency of DAUCHY & Co., 75 Fulton Street, New York, is too well known to need a word of comment from us. We make a note of the fact that they have peculiar and superior facilities for supplying printers' materials of all kinds, and of the best kinds, and cheap as the cheapest.
We have dealt with the house when it was Cooley & Dauchy, and under its present firm name, and have always found them prompt, reliable, thorough business men and true gentlemen.

Daily Journal, Newark N. J.

A RELIABLE ADVERTISING AGENCY.—Messrs. DAUCHY & Co., newspaper Advertising Agents, 75 Fulton Street, New York, do a larger amount of general business, with better satisfaction to the papers with which they deal, than any other similar agency. At any rate this is our experience in the premises, and we take this opportunity to commend them to the press everywhere as prompt, reliable, intelligent and appreciative Advertising Agents.

Evening Standard, New Bedford, Mass.

ADVERTISING AGENCY.—For several years we have done business with Messrs. DAUCHY & Co., 75 Fulton St., New York, who are extensive dealers in printers' materials, and also are Advertising Agents. We have always found them an honorable firm to deal with, prompt in payment, and upright in their agreements, and New York and other merchants wishing to advertise extensively, will find them reliable agents.

OUR NEW DRESS.—The Press appears to-day in an entire new suit of type from the well-known printers' warehouse and type-foundry of DAUCHY & Co., No. 75 Fulton Street, New York. Our new type is brevier and nonpareil, we having discarded the bourgeois in which
