NOVA SCOTIA MILITIA.

The names of the Militia now given are those that have been commissioned since 2nd September, 1862, up to 21st September, 1863. Several of the Regiments, it will be observed, are not filled up, or are only partly so.—this arises from their not being yet organized. After the yearly returns, or Regimental seniority lists, signed by the respective commanding officers of Regiments, have been sent in, a more perfect list can be given for the next year, including all the Officers commissioned (remaining with their Regiments) previous to the above date.
