

be Sunday, in which case the celebration shall take place on the day following,—by such members of the Club as may be disposed to unite in such celebration, and in such manner as the Club or the Council and the House Committee shall from time to time direct.

Amendment of House Rules.

XXXVII.—House Rules of the Club may at any time be altered or amended, or any addition made to them, at any regular meeting of the Club, upon motion to that effect made after notice duly given at the regular meeting previous, and in pursuance of a vote of the Council and House Committee, directing that such motion be so submitted to the Club.

Amendment of By-Laws.

XXXVIII.—These By-Laws shall not be altered or amended, nor any addition made to them, unless at a regular meeting of the Club, at which as many as ten ordinary members of the Club shall be present, and after notice duly given, at the regular meeting previous, of the motion to be submitted for that purpose.
