Don't Wait for an Eight o'Clock Breakfast Tomorrow!

---Because that is the hour at which you should be in our men's store; even if you have to excuse yourself during the meal, make sure of being at Simpson's when the doors open---what awaits you is worth more than a little inconvenience. Here it is:

Three hundred and fifty Summer Suits, selling in the regular way for fifteen, sixteen, eighteen, twenty and twenty-two dollars will be put on sale tomorrow at Seven-ninety-five.

"It's ridiculous," said the manager of our men's store, when we pleaded for this price. "We sold similar suits a year ago Saturday for eleven-ninety-five and had a big day." "Yes," we replied, "but you had a whole Saturday's selling then; to-morrow you have only five hours." So for the sake of big morning business these suits go on at an unprecedented price.

Don't miss the sale of Outing and Neglige Shirts Saturday morning at 69c and 89c, or the 7,000 garments of Summer Underwear, worth as much as a dollar, for .39

These are sample and overmakes of the best ready-to-wear clothing which we cleared from a manufacturer who specializes on the better grades; the materials are fine Imported English Worsteds and Scotch Tweeds in this season's newest designs and colorings, light and medium grey and a variety brown tones cut on the correct two and three-button sack models; sizes 34 to 44. One sale Saturday morning 7.95
