money, which amounts to nearly $2900, for all the extra series, the Tait-Brassey, the Gzowski match and some of the Mackenzie match, will be paid by Lt. Miller, 48th, at Capt. Harbottle's offices, Confederation Life Building any time before noon to-day.

Competitors going home just had to have their certificates stamped by Col. Harbottle, the secretary, and, by presenting them to the conductor, they were honored. This was the result of the visit of Ms. Macdonald, G. P. A., to the ranges, and the marksmen with away very satisfied after the third of a fare scare they received yested day had been rescinded, and Mr. Macdonald got quite interested in the shooting.

Cap. Harbottle received a protest from Major Knowles of 77th Regt., against any prizes being awarded to Pte. Armstrong, 91st Highlanders, who has held a commission as licutenant in the 77th Regt., and is practically a member of two regiments. The p.ize money was paid to Armstrong after the complaint had been investigated by the match committee.
