Dominion Alliance Executive Issues
a Strong Appeal—Call for Organization.

The Exécutive of the Dominion Alliance met in the office of Secretary Spence on Saturday afternoon, when there was a large attendance. It was decided to issue the following appeal to the public:
To all friends of Temperance in Canada:
The Plebiscite Bill has been passed by Parliament. The money for the expense of voting has been appropriated. It is new certain that early in the coming autumn the electors of Canada will be asked to vote 'yes' or "no" on the question of the total prohibition of the liquor traffic.

Sir Charles Scott, the new British Ambassador to Russla, was born in 1838. He entered the diplomatic service in 1858 as attache at Paris and served subsequently at Dresden, Copenhagen, Madrid, Mcxico, Lisbon, Munich, Vienna and Darmstadt. In 1879 he was appointed Secretary of Lembassy at Berlin. In 1888 he was appointed Minister to the Swiss Confederation, and in 1893 was transferred to Copenhagen.

WHAT STEAMER IS THIS?

tion of the total prohibition of the liquor traffic.

This contest will be one terrible intensity, nothing like it has ever before taken place in the history of our cause. The liquor traffic realize the situation and will fight it as never fought before. The very life of this wealthy, grasping and powerful evil is at stake. To meet it we must be earnest, united and organized.

We cannot win without personal sacrifice. We must be ready to give money, time and energy to the fight. Organization must be perfected, literature must be circulated, meetings must be held. Every voter must be personally canvassed.

Men and women, we appeal to you to help in this work in this hour of need. Do it for the sake of the homes that will be designed and the innocence and weakness are likely to be saved, as the water was vessel, but saw several women aboard her. It is believed all the crew and passengers are likely to be saved, as the water was that are doomed to ruin and shame if this traffic goes on.

Lose no opportunity for work. Every available assistance will be needed. Wisely seek to promote our cause in your home, your church, your Sunday-school, your loung People's organization, your temperance society, your business, your social life. Enlist every one of them is a force that may be utilized.

Make special efforts to secure the aid of the press in your locality. In it you will often find a warm and potent friend. Help it with facts, arguments and information that will nearly always be welcomed, appreciated and used.

If there is a plebiscite organization in your locality unite yourself with it. If not take steps at once to have such a work begun. Lose no time. A great responsibility is given us. A splendid opportunity is given of the Dominion Alliance Executive.

F. S. SPENCE, Secretary.

In Memoriam William Grainger.

"Pro Rege et Patria." Over 50 years ago Mr. William Grainger, who departed this life on Saturday, six years over the allotted three score years and ten, was the gay young Sergt-Major of the Yorkville Cavalry, Captain Clark in command, and was presented by the ladies of the village with a flag, on which was the above inscription and a sword, and enrolled himself away back in the Rebellion days one of those "For King and Country." In his long career in Toronto he saw, indeed, many changes in his adopted city and stirring times in this country. Mr. Grainger came to Canada in 1832 and arrived in Montreal, where he remained two years during the time of the great cholera scourge. He then came to this city, where he has been a respected resident for 64 years in the North End, and had, until a few years ago, been in the wholesale but Memoriam William Grainger years in the North End, and had, until a few years ago, been in the wholesale butcher business. Deceased had the honor of hoisting the first Dominion Day flag on Yorkville Town Hall, and, although never taking any office, was always, and all his relatives, unwavering Liberal-Conservative in politics. He was one of the first members of St. George's Society and also of the York Pioneers. His wife predeceased him some three years ago. Three sons survive him—Christopher ("Kit"), well known in the Northwest, of which country he was one of the pioneers; William, corporal of ment he was a former active member, and Charles, who is well known all over Canada as, in his playing career, one of the star defence lacrosse players of the country. The remains will be interred this afternoon, the funeral taking place from the family residence, on Cumberland-street.

GROCERY and PROVISION DEALERS Confederation Life Building

Yonge Street, Toronto.

II/E ANNOUNCE this morning our retirement from the retail Grocery Business and the disposal of our stock and good-will to The Robert Simpson Co., Limited.

To the large number of customers who have continuously favored us with their orders we wish to explain why we closed with this cash offer for our business. We would gladly continue to serve our friends, and are retiring-not because of lack of business—we have had a good volume of trade-but the very close margin on which our goods have to be sold and the great cost of a delivery system—City and Suburban together with other reasons, are making it impossible for us to continue profitably.

We gladly announce that customers will be served and our celebrated brands of provisions supplied by a firm of such high standing as The Robert Simpson Co., Limited.

In connection with their great business they have a perfect delivery system. Handling enormous quantities of goods they can do it at the smallest cost. We believe they value their reputation too highly ever to sacrifice quality to cheapness. We have, therefore, the satisfaction of knowing that they will be able to serve our customers well and faithfully. We thank them one and all,

And remain, faithfully,
